MISSING

The Salvation Army will search he issued persons in any part of the elektrication and as the possible, assist syncial to the elektrication and as the possible, assist syncial in the property of the possible, as the property of the propert

mmnir

3mm shades

s fight,

d up,

cup,

EE Songging; ng, ng, ng. heming. ning

g. ving. leaving.

e never sever;

efying, ing,

s work ntitled: , after refresh-refresh-was re-Sister ers for all join tho so ance to untains nake.

sent with each enquiry, to neip ethis expenses.
Officers, Soldiers and friends are it, wited to assist in this matter by lesking regularly through the Missing Columb, and maturity Golome Otway, it able to give any information.

LAVENDER, George, morried age % height 5 ft, 6 hr. black har, browner with the property of the control of the c her. Any information around the process of the control of the information of the informat

Official Gazette of The Salvation Army in Canada East and Newfoundland

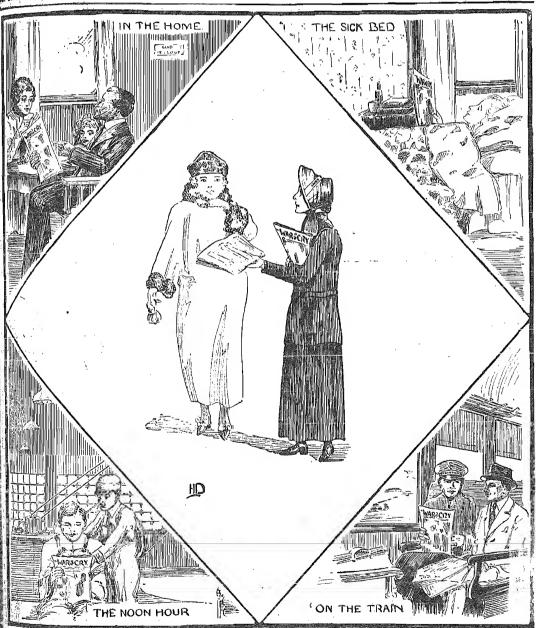

INTERNATIONAL HEADQUARTERS 101QUEEN VICTORIA ST., LONDON, E.C.

WILLIAM BOOTH Founder BRAMWELL BOOTH General TERRITORIAL HEADQUARTERS: JAMES AND ALBERT STS. TORONTO

NO. 2017. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

TORONTO, JUNE 9th, 1923

CHARLES SOWTON, COMMISSIONER

Over One Hundred Army Publications, the Principal of which is the "War Cry", have, as White Winged Messengers of Hope and Salvation, Enriched the World." (See article on page 5)

DAILY BIBLE READINGS

By way of encouraging the reading of God's Word when perhaps a Bible is not available, we print a few verses here for each day of the week.

STINDAY

Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

They went forth, and preached

Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance to-ward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

MONDAY

Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wan-

Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, . . . and were by nature the children of wrath, even as

TUESDAY

Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfieth

What fruit had ve then in those things whereof ye are now asham-ed? for the end of those things is death.

WEDNESDAY

WEDNESDAY

For Thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon Thee.

The promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

But now, in Christ Jesus, ye who sometime were far off are made nigh by the Blood of Christ.

THURSDAY

Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his trans-gressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

FRIDAY

Yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead. You hath He quickened, were dead in trespasses and sins.

And you, being dead in your sins, and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath He quickened.

SATURDAY

Ask, and it shall he given you; sek, and ye shall find; knock, and shall be opened unto you. Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplica-tion with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. Let us therefore come boldly un-to the Throne of Grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

POINTED PARS

The Salvation life is the only race in which all who run may win a crown at the finish.

"Listening to God's voice is the secret of the assurance that He will listen to ours.

The love that never seeks expression in service is not love at all, whether it be toward God or toward man.

ARE YOU DRIFTING?

A Sure Anchorage May be Found in True Religion

OES your anchor hold?"
That is a question of vital importance to a ship when either by stress of wind and weather, or by reason of currents too strong for it to stem unaided, it is being driven, or is drifting, toward on until whome.

is being driven, or is dritting, toward an unfriendly shore.

It is all too evident that multitudes are being driven about, or are drifting, on the sea of life without any sure anchor. This is the explanation of the ever-growing list of tragedies that shock newspaper readers until the mind becomes shocked almost into the mind becomes shocked almost into insensibility, and murders, suicides and social and moral disasters are and social and moral disasters are passed over with hardly a thought unless they are attended by circum-stances specially harrowing.

Unable to cope unaided

Why is an anchor necessary? Be-cause it is inevitable that during the voyage of life conditions will arise which the human vessel will be unable to cope unaided.

Why do not men and women make it their first business to see that they possess in their lives that which will be a sure hold for them when such dangers arise? In the main, we should because of the inherent pride of the unregenerate heart, which while it sees disaster overtake others, fails to take home the lesson of warning because it refuses to admit its own

Then there is pride's twin, selfishness. One would think that the first instinct of selfishness would be to take all the precautions necessary for self-preservation. But the trait known as selfishness is notoriously short-sighted, so much so that it is altosegitives of the service of the serv ligion is a sure anchor under all cir-cumstances. When storms of temptation, adversity, disappointment, sorrow, bereavement, illness and even death sweep over the possessor of true religion, this anchor holds. When the alluring winds of sensuous pleas-ure and the undercurrents of indo-lence would carry the soul into danger, it is a sure preventive of drift.

But religion is either more than this, or it is nothing. After all this is probably the real reason why so many are without it. You cannot carry religiou on deck, so to speak, a mere dead thing, like an anchor, that you can take anywhere to use when danger threatens.

Sure anchorage is one of the results of religion rather than religion itself. He who would have this or any other of the manifold benefits of religion must be religious. He can-not have the "anchor" of trust and when danger threatens, un-has the right captain and crew aboard and steers a right course

It is true, in the mercy of God, that He will hear the heart-cry for help of the most desperate and despairing sinner, and will save the soul in its last extremity, but in such appears that the soul in the last extremity in such appears that the soul in the last extremity in such appears that the soul in the soul in the last extremity. there must be the sincerity that would make Him not only the "an-chor," but the Captain of the ship He is to save.

Make life sweeter

In religion that takes possession of ne ship there is that which will not only preserve from danger, but make whole of life sweeter and happier. Religion is not a kill-joy; neither is it a system of "do nots." nor a merely passive submission to a higher will.

Religion is co-operation with the Highest and Greatest of All in the working out of the best and noblest conception of earth and heaven. It grandest, most important, most ing work to which man can apply heart, hand and brain, without which there is no attaining the com-plction of his being, nor full employment of his capacities.

COMPLETING THE IOB

One of the most enthusiastic members of the General's congrega-tions at Wolverhampton recently was a man who, some time ago, entered the Army Hall in response entered the Army Hall in response to the invitation of an out-of-date poster. He was in a pitiable condition, wearing part of a suit which was much too small for him, and obviously a drink-slave. The Band-master spoke to him, and, while the Benediction was being pronounced, he knelt at the penitent form. When Adjutant W. Price, the Corps Officer, saw his condition, he wrote off to some friends for a suit wrote off to some friends for a suit to clothe the new convert, and a few weeks later he secured a second swit so that the man, who being out of employment was very poor, cguld attend the Meetings without embarrassment. He has taken his stand for God, and now, wearing a red jacket and Army cap, is keen Salvationist, most anxious to creax the Organization which as repay the Organization which, as well as leading him into Salvation, saw to it that he had clothes to wear as he took his stand amongst the people.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

Going home one night, the village carrier, heard what he thought at first was some one quarrelling, hut as he passed the window of the cottage from whence the sound came a voice was saying, "O God, save the people of this village; I claim them all for Thee!" The carrier continued on his way home, becoming as he did so more and more conscious of his own sinful condition. All night he lay awake with those words ringing in his ears, and finally in the early hours of the morning he dressed and went to the house he had passed the previous night. Knocking at the door, it was opened by the Salva-tion Army Officer, who invited the man in, heard why he had come to see him and had the see him, and had the joy of point-ing him to God. Next night in the Soldiers' Meeting the Captain told the story to the comrades and urged them to remember the almost-forgotten saying of the late Commissioner Dowdle, "Never let the Devil tie up the tongue." He further herged of them to pray so that their neighbors could hear them!

AN HOURLY, DAILY "WHY?"

She was one of the millions of women who live in trim little while curtained houses that are real home curtained houses that are real house and nests of rest to men and dis-dren. Standing in her near kitchen, which was full of cunning devia-to increase its comforts and sare away the thought of poverty, the asked the question all such woned have often troubling their minds, "Why?"

"Why is my life only one toud of tiring work; the same host, daily, weekly, monthly, while the years go past quicker and quiter and there comes no change, no difference in the present, and less hope in the future. Cooking washing in the future. Cooking washing cleaning, mending, contriving, managing; it brings nothing and least nowhere. Why?"

She did not know that her kind She did not know that her list face, her eyes pure with looling upward for help and light her mouth set to endure and to smit when her heart was faint, assaid her question. She could not se herself and all she expressed her existence, so she had to be told in this way:

"In your boys' room are settal wall-texts. The one over the fin-

"In your boys room and wall-texts. The one over the firm nlace is 'Great Peace Have They Love Thy Law,' You are wall-texts. Inc our the They which Love They Law? You are one of the mighty multitude of the men, who, knowingly or unknowingl, love God's law—and do it. God would have the world happy, confortable, safe, kind, at ease. Else why did He give His only Son for try to make your home happy, a circle of lives, the lives that ha you in, view Him, knowingly or usyou in view rim, knowingly are knowingly, in you and your joo, little, humdrum' deeds. The neas thing to God some part of huma-ity ever see is 'Wife' or Mohat' Blessed be the woman exalted to carry them so far! Have you at had His peace?"

nan His peace?"

She became very still, her go downcast. "Yes, often."

"And happy often in spite of tol and hardness?"

"Yes."

"Yes."
"Would you change with any other, with the rich highly-born fashionable, talented?"
She was silent awhile, thinking hack over the moments and bons. of exquisite love; of the husbud secure in his trust in her; of the first-born; of the embraces and words of the children. Then see said, lifting her head and laughter

"No!"
"Do you see 'Why'"
"Yes, I've seen it before but it gotten it."
Don't forget it, wives and meaning the second of the secon

thers, feeling within yourselves consciousness of fitness for "he things." Don't forget that consciousness of fitness for "helt things." Don't forget that the feeling may be a temptation indu-ing you to cease following out the Law of Love, Self-Sacrifice, Onda-and Charity, at the wash-tub, rob-ing, scrubbing, in the never-entire waiting-on and going to and fiv. In these seemingly menial test you are lifting up the Cross, The to God each task, each waitons' disappointment, pain, and the det you most dislike. He understude and great Peace will deserned

Make matters of care matters

A fault-mender is better that A fault me

It is not always easy to be happ

FAMILIAR chorus in regular use in Army Meetings says: There is joy in the Salvation Army." And there is, as witness the stimony, not only of our own people but of careful observers by the the but of the says and the says and the says and the says are says are says and the says are says and the says are says are says and the says are says are says are says and the says are says are says and the says are sa ple, but of careful observers by the hardreds in many lands. In fact it gold appear that this characteristic of the Salvationist is very outstand-ing for it is most frequently com-

Not free from trials

There may be some people inagine that this capacity for e ment finds expression with ease for enjoyis to say, that there is only joy in the life of the warrior who fights under the Blood and Fire Flag; that the sun ever shines on him; that all men ever sumes on mun; that all men speak well of him; and that trials are swept far from his path. But, of course, this could not be, for all that is common to the lot of man comes to the Salvarionist equally with this difittence, however—he has One to whom he may take his anxieties; the reat Burden-Bearcr.

Still, there is a further difference, in some cases, though it is far from being in his favor. Sometimes, this beging in his favor. Sometimes, the smalling, overflowing cheerful spirit, comes through circumstances which would dishearten the majority. It is of such that I am reminded by the

First there springs to mind the case of a soldier in the Middlesex Regiment, a rough London lad with an ed his best side. Bob Pullen had an awful crime sheet when the battalion went to be stationed at G. En nent to be startoned at hims, and he arrived in total dis-grace. Not only was he drunken, bad as that was, but he managed always to experence additional trouble when in that condition.

Looked the part

Yet he was a good soldier. On guard he looked the part to perfection, as he marched to and fro with the precision of clockwork. His body was held according to the manual; his rife in line as required; his "present" apiture. But if you accompanied as inspecting officer you would sure-h find that a button was gone from his shoulder strap—just—rubbed—off be the could answer any question where regarding his beat.

Indicky," was Bob's hopeless in every time he was asked by the rifle—or nation

est chance here is the Salvast chance here is the Salva-ny be declared, when his t had expired and he was not the first time since arriving the station. And he made his way to the Naval and Military Hostel.

"Please, sir," said he to the Officer a charge of the institution, "I want. onfirmed.'

Confirmed?" said the Officer look-

Confined?" said the Officer tooking puriled.
"You know, like," said Bob in explantion, "I want to join 'em, to be a Salvationist, a proper one!"
'Oh, you mean converted!" And it was Bob's meaning. And it was be experience, also, ere he left the said that may Bob's meaning the ban a feeling he know, in that we than a feeling, he knew, in that we knew things we wish which we knew things we made cookin, that a burden had soo lim; that his spirit was had free, most v of gladness into his life depression h new life. How the his new-four told of it in bosom pals. only guffaw

"Just you down at the he said, "the "Catch us ed Jack Will If he can chance we'd One by o found the s whereas the without find culty, Bob g on trouble; things. One mandant wa visitation at in at the gu

"Everything asked, smili-Looking lot, sir," ca: "My lot."

"Please, s

Army Office o the roo "Bob!" he into ter, boy?" lust unb replied, stan sergeant lau looked an in

"Simulatii answered. in our crush ation made seen one of canteen far joining and lead the dru room. As the darknes mental ser called them hind them t

"Onick struggled f "Disengage sober men lapsed on t so they we pretending three lay i The Sal

they faced planation friends of off. Pullen you ture, said the orderly was 'fated expressed i and again. This was held in the ing it is ea er says his

N HOURLY, DAILY "WHY?"

was one of the millions of n who live in trim little white ned houses that are real home ests of rest to men and this Standing in her neat kitchen was full of cunning devices crease its comforts and sain the thought of poverty, the the question all such women often troubling their midd.

hy?"

hy is my life only one round ing work; the same hourk, weekly, monthly, while the go past quicker and quicker here comes no change, no dise in the present, and less hose future. Cooking, wasting no mendine, contriving my. e future. Cooking, washing, ng, mending, contriving, man, it brings nothing and leak ere. Why?"

ere. Why?"

- idid not know that her his her eyes pure with looking rd for help and light, her hest to endure and to smalter her heart was faint, ansamble the heart was faint, ansamble if and all she expressed hy kistence, so she had to be told is way.

is way:
your boys' room are serial exts. The one over the fire is 'Great Peace Have They h Love Thy Law.' Your if the mighty multitude of wowho, knowingly or unknowingly, Code leave and do it. Ook God's law—and do it. God's law—and do it. God's have the world happy, comple, safe, kind, at ease. Else did He give His only Son for cause you love His law and o make your home happy, a of lives, the lives that hen n, view Him, knowingly or uningly, in you and your post, humdrum' deeds. The states to God some part of human ed be the woman exalted to them so far! Have you mil His peace?"

became very still, her ent cast. "Yes, often," nd happy often in spite of toll nardness?"

ould you change with any with the rich highly-both onable, talented?"

onable, talented?"

was silent awhile, thisking over the moments and born equisite love; of the hushand in his trust in her; of the orn; of the embraces and so of the children. Then are lifting her head and laughing.

you see 'Why'"
s, I've seen it before but in n't forget it, wives and a feeling within yourselves it iousness of fitness for "better". iousness of fitness to sub-se." Don't forget that the g may be a temptation induc-ou to cease following out the of Love, Self-Sacrifice, Order, Charity, at the wash-tuh, cobcrubbing, in the neverendifing-ing-on and going to and included these seemingly menial 1253 tree lifting up the Cross, The old each task, each weathers on each task, each weathase pointment, pain, and the dul nost dislike. He understates great Peace will descend to ke matters of care matters ult, mender is better than a

IN THE MIDST OF ADVERSITY

It is not always easy to be happy; but there is a Power which Triumphs over unkind circumstances By WARWICK L. WALL

FAMILIAR chorus in regular use in Army Meetings says:

"There is joy in the Salvation Army." And there is, as witness the testimany, not only of our own people, but of careful observers by the hardreds in many lands. In fact it sould appear that this characteristic of the Salvationist is very outstanding for it is most frequently compated upon.

Not free from trials

There may he some people who imagine that this capacity for enjoyment finds expression with ease. That ment finds expression with ease I hat is to say, that there is only joy in the life of the warrior who fights under the Blood and Fire Flag; that the sun set shines on him; that all men speak well of him; and that trials are says far from his path. But, of ones, this could not be, for all that icommon to the lot of man comes to course, this could not be, for an triat is common to the lot of man comes to the Salvationist equally with this difference, however—he has One to whom he may take his anxieties; the whom he may take his anxieties; the grat Burden-Dearer.

Still, there is a further difference, in some cases, though it is far from being in his favor. Sometimes, this stilled, overflowing cheerful spirit, comes through circumstances which mould dishearten the majority. It is of such that I am reminded by the cheft the reticle.

title of this article. First there springs to mind the ease of a soldier in the Middlesex Regiof a soldier in the Middlesex Regi-nort, a rough London lad with an antward manner which never show-ed his best side. Bob Pullen had an awful crime sheet when the battalion was come succi which the bad fallen foul of the regu-lators, and he arrived in total dis-gue. Not only was he drunken, bad as that was, but he managed always to experence additional trouble when in the condition in that condition.

Looked the part

Yet he was a good soldier. On guard he looked the part to perfection, as he marched to and fro with the precision of clockwork. His body the precision of clockwork. His body sea beld according to the manual; his the line as required; his "present" apitus. But if you accompanied in impecting officer you would surely find that a button was gone from his shoulder strap—just rubbed off but trifle—r some sich thing, where he could answer any question deer regarding his beat, unlarky," was Bob's hopeless up/every time he was asked spalmation.

xplänation

estichance here is the Salva-ay, he declared, when his Balad expired and he was the atle first time since arriving as the station. And he made his way to the Naval and Military Hostel.

"Heate, sir," said he to the Officer in charge of the institution, "I want he confirmed."

"Confirmed?" said the Officer looking puzzled.

"You know, like," said Bob in ex-

Top know, like, Said 150h in explantion, "I want to Join 'em, to be a Salvationist, a proper one !"
"Oh, you mean converted!" And hat was Bob's meaning. And it was his experience, also, ere he left the Hadden and the said of the said ose that night. He had something we than a feeling, he knew, in that any in which we know things we tanget explan, that a burden had sometimalim; that his spirit was free, most wonderfully; that a sense of gladness and laughter had come into his life where only attricty and depression had been. It was veritable new life. How the infantrynian revelled in his new-found joy! How tenderly he told of it in shy confidence to his bosom pals. How he stared when they only guffawed, and he wondered why they did not understand. "Just you wait till the Commandant down at the Hostel explains it, boys," he said, "then you'll see it better!" "Catch us going near him," answered Jack Williams, his particular chum. "If he can make you 'loopey,' small ed Jack Williams, his particular ehum. "If he can make you 'loopey,' small chance we'd have!"

One by one, introduced by Bob, three or four of the others came, and found the same source of joy. But whereas the others got on in barracks without finding any particular difficulty, Bob got into the way of trouble on trouble; and always for petty things. One evening, as the Combandant was concluding his round of visitation at the barracks, he looked in at the guard-room. in at the guard-room,
In the "clink"

"Everything correct, sergeant?" he

"Everything correct, sergeant?" he asked, smiling,
"Looking pretty bad for one of your lot, sir," came the answer,
"My lot, why?"
"He's in the clink here. Like to see

"Please, sergeant." The Salvation Army Officer followed the N.C.O. into the room behind. "Bob!" he cried. "What's the mat-

"Just unlucky, Commandant," he replied, standing to attention. The sergeant laughed as the Commandant sergeant laughed as the Commandant looked an inquiry,

"Simulating drunkenness, sir!" he answered. "Worse than the real thing in our crush, sir!" But Bob's explanation made a different story. He had seen one of his former pals leave the carteen far gone with liquor and, joining another man, had tried to lead the drunken fellow to his barrackroom. As they crossed the suture in room. As they crossed the square in the darkness of the evening, the regimental sergeant-major saw them; called them to a halt. Coming up behind them the R.S.M. shouted "About turn!" They floundered round until they faced the irate N.C.O.

they faced the irate N.C.O.

Sharp orders

"Qniek march!" he ordered; they struggled forward. "Halt!" "Twas done. "About!" Again the reverse. "Disengage. Quick march!" The two sober men stepped out; the drunk collapsed on the ground. "Halt!" And so they were placed under guard for pretending to be drunk, and now all three lay in the guard-room together. The Salvation Army Officer's explanation helped the two would-be friends of the drunkard, and they got off.

off.

"If you can do anything for Private Pullen you'll earn our deepest gratiture, said the O.C. that morning in the orderly room, but it seemed Bob was 'fated to go through it,' as he expressed it, for he was caught again, the said of the private was expressed it, for he was caught again, and again, yet kept cheerful withal. This was his testimony in a Meeting held in the Hostel, one evening: "One of our brothers has been saying it is easy for him now, and another says his mates won't do him a bad turn. Well, I can't say how it is, but I'm getting it very rough. The sergeant 'clicks' me for all sorts of things that he calls crime. Before I things that he calls crime. Before I came to the Salvation Arny I couldn't do anything really wrong, though I was drunk at least once a week.

"Called me over, he did, the other day and says, 'If you want to do a crime,' he says, 'do a crime; do a houest soldier-crime. Look at me,' says he 'gifteen drunke on we hee,' says he, 'eighteen drunks on my sheet.' he says, 'and yet I'm a sergeant. You won't find none of this missing but-ton stuff on my record.

Catching him unawares

"But I'm trying to avoid them all, only he catches me unawares, every-where. Still, I can say that I am happy! I've just done seven days' mappy! I've just done seven days' C.B. for not having a clean bayonet-scabbard. It's one that simply won't clean. But I didn't say a word. That sergeant followed me about all those seven days with the dirtiest jobs he could find.

"Yesterday."

Quite another type of person was Dan Harris, "Old Dan," they called him at his work. He had reached a good age—fifty-five to sixty—before he sought Salvation at the Army penitent-form. He had never fived in any sense outrageously, though he had never pretended to be good. Only at holiday times did he indulge in large quantities of drink, but he was always ready for his employment in the glass works.

Handling deadly poison

"Old Dan" mixed the ingredients for the batch, sand, lime, broken glass, arsenie. It was always a marvel to me that he came to no harm from his promiscuous handling of the deadly poison. Everybody liked him until he got saved, and started to play the Army drum. Everybody feared to rouse his temper, in fact, before the great event, but thereafter the treatment he received, the insulting bait-ings was unspeakable, and unkind to a degree.

a degree.

Possibly it was the effect of the arsenie, but his white hair was made much more noticeable by reason of his very youthful—I had almost said cherubic—appearance.

His face was smooth and pink; his cheeks shone like little apples under his eyes. His was an arresting face, and it was always to be seen wreathed in a smile.

and it was always to be seen wreathed in a smile.

One morning he went to its accustomed corner to look for his lunch, which he kept tied in a handkerchief. He was very hungry this day, for he had heen so busy, on account of his assistant being away following a drunken spree, that he had not had time for breakfast. But though he searched high and low he failed to discover the bundle.

"Sounchody having a game," he said, "They'll bring it back directly, and I'll cat it then; meantime I'll work, so as to be ready. It's all the same to me!" So he began to pre-pare another mixing. So many bar-row-loads of silver sand, so much lime, so much glass, and a small quantity of _____! There was the food in the arsenic barrel. The handker-chief was untied, the contents mixed with the deadly powder—and ruined.

"Old Dan" looked very serious for a minute.

a minute.

"Pity to spoil good food," he said,
"but it must go in the fire! First, though, I'll say grace over it, and may the dear Lord satisfy my empty stomach. I believe He will!"

Looking skyward a moment, Dan waited while he felt that his prayer was heard, and then he went on with his work.

his work.

Joy of the Lord

In his Open-air testimony on the next Sunday, Brother Dan spoke of the joy of the Lord which had filled him to utmost satisfaction even when he had had no breakfast and lunch. He did not explain this cryptic utterance, but certain young men standing in the crowd knew the interpretation and, grinning sheepishly, they turned and, grinning sheepishly, they turned away.

Even so it took a more desperate case to beat Dan's opponents utterly. There had been a big delivery of sand at the works, and the laborers had stacked it up in a high mound near Dan's mixing shed; but they had done it in such a way as to leave a sort of cliff front which, when Dan came to collect his next mixing, collapsed upon him completely hiding him.

Fortunately the men had been watching to see the effect of their joke, and they rushed to dig him out. Soon he was clear of the sand, and as he lay there, panting for breath, the shiny little apples beneath his eyes took shape as he said:

"God bless you, boys; you can't hurt old Dan. I've got a host of angels guarding me. all unseen, and the more you try to hurt me, the closer they gather round:"

"What's that you are saying?" asked the manager, suddenly arriving on the scene.

"I was saving 'God bless you,' to

on the scene.

on the scene.
"I was saying 'God bless you,' to these boys, sir," said Dan. "They dug me out!" But at that point Old Dan could say no more, for he had swooned from the shock of it all. The men looking on thought he had died, be-ionxing on thought he nan died, because the smile was gone. And they said one to another:

"He spent his last words in blessing us and shielding us!"
Shone with ecatany

Shone with ecataay Old Dan was playing his drum as usual the next Sunday, when a larger number of the men from his workplace came to the Open-air to hear him speak. That night one of them knelt at the penitent-form, and the Drummer's face shone with heavenly ecstasy as he went to kneel beside him to help him frame his first words of Drayer for foreiveness.

to help him frame his first words or prayer for forgiveness. They two "keep company" at that glass works now, and there are no further signs of opposition there. But the greater burden to the old glass-mixer is that his wife, whom he loves devotedly, steadily refuses to go his devotedly, steadily fetuses to go ms way. More, because he has turned from her way, she makes life hard at home for Dan. But he faces it all with splendid fortitude, nor says a word to a soul about it,

LATEST NEWS OF SALVATION FIGHTING ON THE CANADA EAST BATTLE-FIELD

AMHERST, N.S. Gaptain and Mrs. Falle

On May 12th we gave a Commandant Hurd, also Bandsman J. Enngille, who has been working in the States for some months. The Cit-adel was well filled and the Commandant spoke about Bermuda, which was ite interesting.
Sunday morning the Holiness meet-

Sunday morning the Holiness meeting was conducted by Lieutenant Mc-Millan from Sackville. Commandant Hurd and Captain Falle went to Upper Sackville for a service. In the afternoon Licutenant McMillan took charge of the Company Mceting, while the Commandant, assisted by the Captain and Mrs. Falle and the Amherst Band, proceeded to Sackville, where Captain Brister, the Officer in charge, had a Meeting arranged in the theatre. After two good rousing open-airs, we went to the theatre, which was nicely filled. Dr. Wigle the theatre. After two good roising open-airs, we went to the flicatre, which was nicely filled. Dr. Wigle presided, supported by ex-Mayor Wood and others. Captain and Mrs. Falle rendered a vocal duet, while the Amherst Band played two selections, after which the Commandant spoke In the evening we were back at Ar herst, where the Citadel was filled.

At 8.15 another Meeting was held the Empress Theatre. The buildin the Empress Theatre. The build-ing seats nine hundred people and was filled. His Worship, Mayor was filled. His Worship, Mayor Smith, presided and spoke very high-ly of the Army. Mr. C. L. Martin represented the business men and Rev. Mr. Morgan the Ministers. Mr. O. Thompson rendered a vocal solo, Mrs. Gardiner a recitation and Captain and Mrs. Falle a vocal duet. The Commandant spoke on the Army's work. The Meeting was a great sucwork. The Meeting was a great suc-cess, and on the Monday, while Cap-tain Falle was collecting among the business men for Self-Denial, he found that the Meeting had been a great

KINGSTON Adjutant and Mrs. Condie

Week-end Mcctings were conducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Condic. Sat-urday was Tag Day and it was a glorious day; after a week's rain urday was lag Day and it was a glorious day; after a week's rain everybody enjoyed the sunshine. The collectors were at their posts in good time and all in good spirits.

and the nice sum of $450.00 was realand the nice sum of $459.00 was real-ised. This was beyond our expecta-tions, seeing the house to house col-lecting had just been done. The Corps Target was $1,500.00. This has been reached and $070.00 over last year. We give God the glory.

WINGHAM Captain and Mrs. Whitfield

We are glad to report victory and souls are being saved ly blessed the contrades in our Self-

Denial Campaign. Many contrades and friends recent-Many conrades and friends recentify, sat down to a ca with Captain and Mrs. Whitfield, which was much enjoyed and comrades spoke of how God had helped them while collecting. Although at first the way looked difficult, but by much prayer the way was opened and we came out with success.

Corps Secretary.

BROCKVILLE

Owing to ill health Captain Mur-gatroyd has had to go on furlough, so, with Mrs. Murgatroyd, they fare-welled on Sunday, May 20th, after fifteen months' stay in our midst, during which time they have made many nds and God has made them blessing to many. Two Recruits were at the Monday night Meeting. Sunday, May 27th, our new Officer Lieutenant Stevens, was welcomed in-to our midst from Cornwall and the Meetings were times when all were blessed. One discouraged soul re-turned to the fold at night and claim-

On Monday night the comrades gathered together to partake of a nice-ly prepared supper, arranged by the Home League members, the Secretary, Sister Mrs. Hamilton, being responsible. Words of welcome were extended to the Lieutenant by different comrades of the Corps.

AURORA Captain Wood, Lieutenant Powell

Envoy King of Mount Dennis, was with us for last Sunday morning and afternoon. The inclemency of the weather did not dampen the spirit of the comrades and they were much en-couraged by his talk. An open Com-pany Meeting was led by the Envoy who captivated the children and drove who captivated the children and drove home truths which they could readily grasp and which will undoubtedly be retained. The Envoy's instructive pointers to the Young People's Workwere much appreciated.

Ensign Spooner conducted the Salvation meeting and addressed his remarks chiefly to the Life-Saving Scout Troop, which had assembled for its quarterly Church parade. for its quarterly Church parade. The Ensign set forth what was expected of them as Scouts and the principles and qualifications they should possess.

MONTREAL II. Captain and Mrs. Bell

The Meetings on Sunday, May 20th, were conducted by our Officers all day. In the aftertoon the young people held their Altar Service, which was well attended. At the night Mectatory 20th, we ing the Seniors had an Altar Service ing the Seniors had an Altar Service and a goodly number responded. The Hall was well filled. Nearly all our comrades raised their Targets, and many of them doubled and some several times over. We have smashed our Target. Converts are coming along very nicely and are rallying up to the Meetings.

M. S. Turvey.

M. S. Turvey

LONDON II. Captain and Mrs. Mann

We are still on the upward way at London II. On Sunday, May 13th, we welcomed into our midst an old comrade in the person of Sister Mrs. Gray, who has been in lingland for

On Sunday, May 20th, we had a very good day. In the Holiness meeting God came very near, also at

PERTH Captain Lyon, Lieutenant Williams

On Sunday and Monday, May 20th. and 21st, we had with us Mrs. Brig-adier Green of Toronto and Corps Cadets Ethel Pell and Lizzie Mason of Ottawa. Despite the wet weather we had a good time and in the after noon we went out to the House of efuge and held a service there.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. Green gave a most interesting lecture. Two gave a most interesting lecture. Iwo souls caine forward in our week-end Meetings. Brother Keller was com-missioned Flag Sergeant. Our Altar Service was very im-pressive, and we have smashed our pressive, and we have smashed our Self-Denial Target. Saturday, May 19th, we raised $100 for our Self-Denial by a Tag Day. On Mother's Day Mrs. Stacey, our oldest Soldier, was presented with a bouquet in honor of our mothers.

> NORTH BAY Captain and Mrs. Larman /

Meetings at North Bay recently have been very well attended. The open-airs are specially a means of much good. The men from the lumber camps listen with anxious ears and drink in the truths of the gospel. On a recent Sunday several new commissions were presented to the comrades by Captain Larman. The additions are two Company Guards, four Songsters and three Bandsmen. This brings the Band number to seventeen and the Songsters to eighteen. Every branch of the Corps is show-ing signs of progress and doing splendidly. One soul, a backslider, regained the joy of knowing her sins forgiven. We are going forward for forgiven. We are going bigger things in the future.

L. H. Saunders.

LONDON III. Enaign and Mrs. Foster

Mother's Day was a real blessed day to the Officers and comrades of London III., the Hall being beautifully decorated with flowers. ly decorated with flowers. Large crowds attended the services all day and the addresses given by Ensign Foster were very helpful. The afternoon service was given entirely in the interests of the young people and a number were commissioned as Young

Band and Songsters rendered valuable service all day and we re-joiced at the close over one soul seek-

BARRIE Captain and Mrs. Everitt

Saturday and Sunday, May 26th and 27th, we were favored with a visit from Lieut.-Colonel Hargrave. A good open-air was held on Saturday controller. day evening, when a large number of people listened to the Colonel's mes-

Our Meetings were well attended lady on Sunday, the Colonel's ad-esses being very inspiring and neipres.

In the afternoon Company Meeting the Young People also greatly appreciated the Colonel's words.

In a recent Cottage meeting one soul sought and found Salvation.

TRENTON, ONT.

On May 13th our Officers, Capuin Edwards and Licutement Court, were in charge. Special references were made to Mother.

For the afternoon Captain Edwark gave a practical talk to the yong people, urging them to make the mor of their parents while they had be opportunity. At the close very did was given a remembrance to the

was given a reinembrance to the home to Mother. On Sunday night as Captain Et-wards, Lieutenant Court, Treasing Browning and Brother Monkley sep. "Tell Mother I'll be there," may "Tell Mother I'll be there," many hearts were touched. Secretary Mr. Huffman spoke very feelingly of he own mother who has gone on belon Conviction was evident.

Our Tag Day netted us over $200 Our Tag Day netted us over the control of Sunday, in spite of the rain, the young people brought their gifts to the Altar during the singing of "The my life and let it be." It did on hearts good to see how willingly the came with their gilts. At night the Senior Altar Service was held,
Our Self-Denial Target is con-finished by We pletely shattered. "Victory is certain under the singing hauner of Salvation Tesus, our Captain, never did a battle lose!

PORT HOPE

Recently we had the pleasure of a visit from Staff-Captain Cameron Ills addresses were very inspiring, in although there were not any visible although there were not any in-results. God wonderfully blessed We can also thank God for

We can also thank God nashed Self-Denial Target. emashed Sunday, May 27th, four souls knet at the mercy-scat.

TILLSONBURG Smith, Lieutenant Bobbit

Mother's Day services ducted by Ensign and Mrs. Steels of Toronto. On Saturday night a cond Toronto. On Saturday night a cond listened to the carnest appeals make by them. Sunday the Holiness meting was a real feast to our souls so the very touching and tender relaences made to mother in the night service were very impressive.

WALKERVILLE Adjutant Mabb, Captain Event

On Sunday, May 20th, the Sont of England held their annual church parade. They formed up in the Wallestead Park and marched to the Army Hall, led by the Army Bard. We had a nice gathering and Adjutant Woolcott of Chatham, had chare of the Mertine. The Band and Song of the Mertine. of the Meeting. The Band and Sonsters took an active part. The Adjutant gave the address and God's prewas felt in our midst.

once was feit in our midst.
Our Songsters are propressed under the leadership of Songster Leader Stoot. The Songsters led charge of the week-end Meding while individual members took an active part both inclide and in he charge of the week-end aftering white individual members too an active part, both inside and as the open-air meetings. Our Soldiers at making a fine showing in the ordars. We are having Musical for grammes on Saturday are gaining die inter

HO can measure the Salva-tion Army's contributetion Army's contribution to the world's good in the other of its printing presses? Over one hundred publications, the principal of which is the "War Cry," have, as white-winged messengers of hope and Salvation, enriched the of some world.

The first feature, and perhaps the mest striking, I would like to point on with respect to Salvation Army literature is that the "War Cry" is serywhere. It has become well hown that the Salvation Army that the proof every land, but hown that the Salvation Army Plig files in almost every land, but few realize that its papers are found in every part of the world— ern to civilization's remotest out-

How wonderful it is! When we How wonderful it is! When we come to look upon it and consider Silvation Army history, there is cothing more wonderful than the story of the "War Cry." It is one maintained, unbroken miracle! In fut, in all our operations there is othing more precious!

"O Commander," someone objets, "you cannot say that! There jens, you cannot say that! There is our street message, our open-air meetings, so powerful, so Christilke, so lenitul' in arresting the erring and the wayward!"

. Most perpetual voice But, my dear friend, the "War cy is four follows and most per-petual voice upon the streets. When our throats become husky, ud our lips are silent, and our forms have passed from the eyes of the people, this voice is not hushed—this roice still cries the warnings with the start of God.

"Well," you say, "there is our himme-those old hymns that find there way into the deepest depths of the people's souls. Is not this Ye it is. But then our "War Cry earlies these hymns into the por man's dwelling, and, like the little boy, folding, upon the gutter's

HE Sunday Meetings at Bell Island were conducted by Golonel Martin, who was ittompanied by the General Sectrongeneration of the Holiness meeting was indeed a treat to the large number the attended this service. The Colone's instructive address clearis emphasized the joy expressed in the character of individuals who accept God's plan for their lives. tout God's plan for their men the Colonel gave his lecture, enfiled: "With the Salvation A themoon which was deeply inter-sting, and greatly appreciated by

The building was packed to its timest capacity at night. The of an Altar service, and while an appropriate song was sung, the commades from the platform and narious parts of the Hall laid their haious parts of the Hall laid their gifts on the table provided, the amount of which exceeded the Copps. Target by over $100.00, which is indeed splendid. After a sob by Captain Noseworthy, the Colonel in referring to his farewell from Newfoundland, wished, with the Maria Maria thank the compades. llis Martin, to thank the comrades operation in all their stoperation in all their plans for the advancement of the Army on the Sea-Girt Isle. He would not con force his stay, and praised cod for the thread state in the correction of the control of the Way in who called explain see from h curb, the lebeautiful hy

WH

a gentler "Please, sir, poor mother so the "Wa songster, an ing the poor

Ag "Well," yo Cry as pred lief of distre many Christ operation

Why, my Cry" is one cies of relief is bent on s tion Army out his mi sympathy tha help he need live and str Do you no Cry" points

the way bac virtue for th ing girl of th doorstens wit out as their in the Heaven-inspir ways call "The column," the can reach he the little girl in the tangl

Colonel I

ГНЕ

The Compa ed by the Co-and a short given togethe

Island

couragement Guards and very helpful. On Saturda the rooms of Prescott Stre companied by Officers, cond to the memor mann, a Solo Corps, and a after fiv torium, passed Our Comrado full confidence died triumpha prayer, a sma its way to where the be "Portia" to Pi of the decease Captain Fry

N FIGHTING TTLE-FIELD

VIIIIams

lay 20th, rs. Brig-d Corps e Mason

he after

Iouse of ere.

itre. Two vas com-ery ine raised y a Tag s. Stacey.

nted with

icd. The neans of the lumie gosnel. reral to the

Guarde

Bandsmen.

er to seveighteen. is show-id doing ackslider, her sins ward for unders.

ıl blessed nrades of beautiful-

Large

ter

iothers.

TRENTON, ONT.

On May 13th our Officers, Cipan Edwards and Lieutenant Court, was in charge. Special references with made to Mother.

For the afternoon Capitain Edward.

opportunity. At the close every did was given a rentembrance to the home to Mother.

On Sunday night as Capian Edwards, Lieutenant Court, Teasure Browning and Brother Monkley say "Tell Mother I'll be there," may hearts were touched. Secretary Mr. Huffman spoke very feelingly of the own mother who has gone on behat. Conviction was evident.

Our Tag Day netted us over $20.00 On Sunday, in spite of the rain, the young people brough the rain, the young people brough the rain, the young neonly and the time is the Altar during the singing of "Jakemy life and let it be." It did on hearts good to see how willingly the hearts good to see how willingly that came with their gifts. At night the Senior Altar Service was held

Senior Altar Service was held.
Our Self-Denial Target is conpletely shattered. We finished by singing "Victory is certain under the banner of Salvation, Jesus, our Cutain, never did a battle lose"

PORT HOPE Captain Clarke, Lieut Dixon

Recently we had the pleasure of a visit from Staff-Captain Cameron. His visit from Staff-Captain Cameron, Hy-addresses were very impring, id-although there were not any visite, results, God wonderfully blessel a. We can also thank God for a smashed Self-Denial Target, 0s Sunday, May 27th, four souls said at the mercy-seat.

TILLSONBURG Ensign Smith, Lieutenant Bobbitt

Mother's Day services were conducted by Ensign and Mrs. Steels of Toronto. On Saturday night a conducted to the conducted to foronto. On Saturday night a cord listened to the earnest appeals nale by them. Sunday the Holiness mething was a real feast to our souls, and the very touching and tender relevences made to mother in the pipe service were very impressive service were very impressive.

WALKERVILLE . Adjutant Mabb, Captain Evans

On Sunday, May 20th, the Sons of England held their annual chard parade. They formed up in the Willestead Park and marched to the Army Hall, led by the Army Bad We had a nice gathering and Abptant Woolcott of Challam, had chart The Band end Sont The Band end Sont

We had a nice gathering and now that Woolcot of Chatham, had charge of the Meeting. The Band and Song sters took an active part. The Adjetant gave the address and God's precuce was felt in our midst.

Our Songsters are progressing under the leadership of Songsters are charge of the week-end Meetings while individual members both an active part, both inside and in the open-air meetings. Our Soldiers making a fine showing in the open-airs. We are having Muleal Programmes on Saturday merter than are gaining the inter-

WHO can measure the Salva-tion Army's contribution to the work HO can measure the Salva-tion Army's contribution to the world's good in the output of its printing presses? Over one hundred publications, the prin-cipal of which is the "War Cry," that, as white-winged messengers of pope and Salvation, enriched the meridiate feature, and perhaps the most striking, I would like to point out with respect to Salvation Army fleriture is that the "War Cry" is cerywher. It has become well moon that the Salvation Army flow files in almost every land, but realize that its names are Flag mes in almost every land, but few realize that its papers are found in every part of the world— even to civilization's remotest outpost.

June 3th, 1923

How wonderful it is! When we some to look upon it and consider Stration Army history, there is ioning more wonderful than the slory of the "War Cry." It is one saiptained, unbroken miracle! In fet, in all our operations there is ict, in all our operations there is publing more precious!

"O Commander," someone obsits, "you cannot say that! There is our street message, our open-air methings, so powerful, so Christilike, so futful in arresting the erring and the wayward!"

Machine American Comments of the commen and the wayward.

Most perpetual voice

But, my dear friend, the "War for sour loudest and most per guild voice upon the streets,

Was our throats become husky, and our lips are silent, and our form have passed from the eyes of the people, this voice is not hushed this voice still cries the warnings with soice still cries the warnings and intenties of God.

"Well," you say, "there is our lightnessed of hymns that find her way into the deepest depths of the people's souls. Is not this fectous phopuse"

Yes, it is. But then our "War Gy farries these hymns into the non man's dwelling, and, like the little bby, folding, upon the gutter's

THE Sunday Meetings at Bell Island were conducted by Golonel Martin, who was incompanied by the General Sectiative. The Holiness meeting was indeed a treat to the large number the attended this service. The Chind's instructive address clear-

Cobject's instructive address clear-ity eighbaired the joy expressed in the character of individuals who accept God's plan for their lives. The Colone gave his lecture, en-titled: "With the Salvation Army flar on the Continent," in the ultranon which was deeply inter-tion, and greatly appreciated by the sufficience.

The building was packed to its unions capacity at night. The list part of this Meeting took the timest capacity at night. The first part of this Meeting took the furn of an Alkar service, and while a spipopriate song was sung, the counsels from the platform and winus, parts of the Hall laid their fifts on the table provided, the signature of which exceeded the form Target by over $100.00, which is indeed splendid. After a sid, by Captain Noseworthy, the Calond in referring to his farewell from Newboundland, wished, with Min Martin, to thank the comrades of Bell Island for their interest and cooperation in all their plans for the Sea-Girt side. He would not son forget his stay, and praised of the three courses he had stay the side of the three courses he had stay the side of the stay in the side of the stay in the side of the stay is and the constitution of the same side of the stay in the side of the stay is and praised the same side of the stay in the same side of the sa way in win connot exploi cone from h

WHITE-WINGED MESSENGERS OF SALVATION

BY COMMANDER EVA BOOTH

curb, the leaflet upon which the beautiful hymn, "Rock of Ages," was printed, said, as he offered it to a gentleman who asked for it, "Please, sir, give it me back; my poor mother wants it to die on!" so the "War Cry" is a heavenly songster, an angelic chorister, singing the poor over the last sea into the Harbor eternal.

Agency of rollef
"Well," you say, is this 'War Cry' as precious as our actual relief of distress and sorrow in our many 'Christilke, God-honored Social operations"

many Christlike, God-honored So-cial operations " Why, my dear friend, this "War Cry" is one of the greatest agen-cies of relief. It tells the man who is bent on suicide to wait a bit that there is a friend in the Salva-tion Army to whom he may tell out his misery; that there is a heart throbbing with understanding sympathy that will give him just the help he needs to make him glad to help he needs to make him glad to live and strive to serve his God and his fellow man.

Do you not know that this "War Cry" points to the wide-flung door, the way back home, to love and virtue for the poor, poor, despairing girl of the street? Oh, the many of these who have stood on our doorsteps with the "War Cry" held out as their passport!

Then there is the blessed, Heaven-inspired column that I always call "The Shepherd and Sheep column," through which mother can reach her wandering boy, and can reach her wandering boy, and the little girl who has lost her way in the tangled paths of life can hear father's voice calling her name as he did in the old homestead. Perhaps you have heard of the lad who, away in the gold diggings of Alaska, bought from one hut of supplies a cup of coffec (and poor, indeed, the coffee was) and a sandwich, which, wanting to share with his mate, he took away wrapped in a sheet of newspaper. Half-way up the trail hunger reminded him of his purchase, and taking the package out of his pocket his eyes stared at his own face upon the paper, with the words: "Come home, Jim, come home! Mother is broken-hearted. We will forgive you everything!" Signed "Father." Through the network of machinery which is the power behind the "War Cry's" message, the boy was financed message, the boy was financed across the world to his old home, and is to-day a loyal Salvationist.

All absorbing passion
"Oh," you say, "but the most precious feature of all Salvation recious feature of all Salvation Army activities is our soul-saving work." You are right. It is. The one all-absorbing passion and purpose of our Organization is the Salvation of men, and this paper, I do not hesitate to say, is our swiftest, strongest and furthest-reaching declaration of that greatest fact of all history: Christ caue "to seek and to save that which was lost." And this is the proclamation it carries everywhere.

The "War Cry" stands for the old truths, any time, every time, and all the time. It never lowers its platform or changes its propaganda. It is an intrepid, unflinching declaration of the unalterable and imperishable Gospel of Jesus Christ.

and imperishable Gospel of Jesus Christ.

In this day of destructive criticism and perfiteious teaching; in this day of poisonous writings—writings that attack the fundamental truths of the Christian religion; in this day when the adultcration of the Gospel has crept even into the pulpit; in this day of dissection and contradiction of the Bibles matching the eternal hope from diage, and robbing youth of its one unerting lamp through the dark and snare-strewn forests of life, this "War Cry"—this humble Salvation Army piece of journalism, this cheap paper with its immortal lettering—goes forth, as a tongue of fire, upholding the story of the Cross, defending the standards of the Bible and championing the cause of the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world. Find it everywhere

You will find it, with its undying message, with its irrestible entreaty.

You will find it, with its undying message, with its irrestible entreati, with its Calvary love, out on the far-flung cattle ranges of the great Northwest. You will find it the sole companion of the lonely shepsole companion of the lonely shepherd on the sheep station of the Antipodes. You will find it wet with the salty spray on the whaling smack of Lahrador. You will find it thumbed by black fingers in the Hottentor's mud hut or Zuhi kraal. You will find it spelled over by the leper's dimmed eyes, amid the exotic fragrance of the Southern Isles. You will find it selled over by the leper's dimmed eyes, amid the exotic fragrance of the Southern Isles. You will find it is sunshine filters on the page through prison bars. You will find it sounding the same note, singing the same song, that has echoed through the ages, unalterable ho its truth, images, unalterable in its truth imperishable in its efficacy, everlasting in its glory—the Gospel of God unto Salvation.

THE SALVATION WAR IN NEWFOUNDLAND

Colonel Martin Conducts Sunday Meetings at Bell Island—A splendid Altar Service—Corps Target Well Smashed—Some Notes of Interest

The Company Meeting was visited by the Colonel in the afternoon, and a short farewell address was given together with words of encouragement to the Company Guards and children which were very helpful.

On Saturday, at 8.45 a.m., outside the rooms of the undertakers on Present Street, the Colonel, accompanied by a number of city Officers, conducted a short service to the memory of Brother A. Pittmann, a Soldier of St. John's II. Corps, and a Great War Veteran, who, after five years in the Sanitorium, passed to his eternal reward. Onr Comrade up to the end had full confidence in his Saviour, and died triumphantly. After the singing of a hymn, Bible reading and prayer, a small procession wended its way to Bowering's Wharf, where the body was sent by the "Portia" to Pilley's Island, the home of the deceased. of the deceased.

Captain Fry, who has been on furlough for the past few months in Toronto, has returned to Newfoundland, and we are pleased to uote the improvement in her health. She will be taking an appointment in the near future.

Brigadier, Stobbs, who is now doing the Audit at the Sub-Territorial Headquarters, is on her first visit to Newfoundland. She is deeply impressed with what she has seen of the Island, and will, no doubt, carry back memories of the invigorating sea breezes of Newfoundland.

Lieutenant Mabel Dally has been appointed to Charleston, to succeed Lieutenant Robinson who has been ill for some time and is now taking Encouraging reports come from Seal Cove, F. B., where a splendid sonli-saving work has been carried on through the winter. Captain Shave, the day school teacher, states that on a recent Friday night six men came to the mercy-seat, one of subney was an add way extentive. of whom was an old man seventyfive years of age, who made his way to the mercy-seat leaning on a crutch. He had been a backslider for over twenty years.

Lieutenant Snow of Black Island, although having a rather ruphill fight, praises God for recent victories. One of the latest converts is a very old woman, who had been a backslider for a number of years, She came to the mercy-seat and got_gloriously saved.

WESLEYVILLE Adjutant and Mrs. Roberts

Under the leadership of Adjutant and Mrs. Roberts, assisted by Cadet Porter, we are having victory. During their stay, which has not yet been nine months, eighteen Soldiers have been added to the roll, and a large number have been converted.

During our Self-Denial week we had kneedrill every morning at 6.30, led by the Soldiers, each taking their turn. By much prayer and faith we have smashed our Target well. Sunday before last Mrs. Roberts spoke very feelingh in the Salvation Meeting, and many hearts were stirred. We are now preparing the paint and paper for our Citadel and have on hand already enough to complete the same. The Young People held their Annual Demonstration recently. Much credit is due to the Young People's Sergeant-Major and other helpers for the progress they are making.

making.

s all day Ensign he after-ely in the ole and a ole and a as Young rendered

d we re-sonI seekeritt

Aay 26th I with a largrave. on Saturumber of iel's mesattended ing and Meeting atly ap s. ting one ation.

A Unique Method for Seeking the Salvation of Men

It is the great joy of the Salvation Army that there is no lack within its ranks of people who are so eager for the extension of God's Kingdom that they are prepared to go to any length—to do the unusual and the unexpected thing—in making known the claims of God and in warning sinners of impending judgment.

There are some of our comrades

I nere are some of our contrades who pass through the streets with boards which bear arresting queries and Scripture quotations, some who scatter leaflets in places where they will catch the eye; others who dare to protest against wickedness and speak for their Master in the crowded tribe or in the superiors. train or in the workshop. One we know is keen to attack the theatre and cinema queues, unrolling some startling picture and challenging the thoughtless while they waste their time and day of grace.

A unique course

So we find joy in the unique at-tempt of an unknown person in Bel-gium, who, as the following striking story, sent by Adjutant Puddicombe, story, sent by Adjutant Puddicombe, of Aberdare, shows, not only adopted a unique course in an attempt to win some one for God, but gloriously suc-

lack's wife came dashing out of the backyard into the kitchen, and as the came she shouted excitedly to her husband, a pigeon fancier and flier, who was still in bed. "There's a strange bird trying to get into the pigeons' house," she cried.

Although he was under the influ-ence of drink, such a call was cal-culated to awaken Jack on the instant, and he was soon stumbling down the stairs and out into the garden and making a search of the cote. Sure enough, here was the strange bird. First then one must discover to on neither dainty leg was there the usual ring to indicate the club to which its owner belonged, and Jack was about to place it with the other birds when he tried one other test—a search under the wing. Here he succeeded, for there was something written on the feathers. Opening them to the full he discovered, not a name and address, but these words: "Pre-pare to meet thy God!"

Not going to gamble

For a monient he stood as a man stunned and then, calling his wife, he showed her the writing and begged her to tell him whether he read aright. It was only too true. Then, to her astonishment, he said, "Tell the chaps I won't go out with them to gamble

Washing himself he went into the town and the Spirit of God directed his steps to the Army Hall. Jack entered and soon he was kneeling at the inercy-seat seeking forgiveness for his many sins.

Naturally the Convert was anxious to find out whence the bird had come. and it afterwards came to light that pigeon had flown from Belgium.

ack was immediately faced by a

He would like to keep such a test. He would like to keep such a bird, seeing that its arrival had led to his conversion, but he was sure, nevertheless, that he mast give up his old life and its practices. Further, he felt he should let this bird carry on felt he should let this med carry on with its soul-startling message, so, after feeding it and giving it a rest, he set it free, praying that it might do more work of the same blessed character.—British "War Cry."

Amongst the Redeemed

Brother Drenna, Carleton Place

For the first time in the history of our little Corps death came and took from our midst our beloved comrade, Brother H. Drenna. Our Brother and his wife took their stand for Jesus last July. The last months of our comrade's life were full of keen suffering, yet he was able to say, "It pays to serve Jesus." Realizing on Tuesday noon that his Realizing on Tuesday moon that his end was mear, he turned to his wife and said, "I am going and I am go-ing happy," On Thursday after-moon Ensign Alderman of Smith's Falls, assisted by Captain Bell-chambers, conducted the funeral service. The Ensign pressed home the fact that death is no respecter of persons.

On Sunday evening Captain Bell-chambers conducted a Memorial service in the Hall. Some of the favorite choruses and songs of our late comrade were sung. Three of the comrades gave testimony to of the comrades gave restingly to the holy life lived by our Brother. They were inspiring. The Captain gave a convincing address and two souls came forward at the close of a well fought prayer meeting. We pray that God may abundantly blcss widow and two children.
G. Reynolds.

Brother Crew, Lamaline, (Nfld.)

of our oldest and most faith ful Soldiers has been called home in of Brother Thomas Our comrade met with an Crew. Our contrade met with an accident and a few days later his spirit took its flight to the Mansions above. When visited by the Soldiers and Corps Officer he was always found happy, and said he was content to die if it was God's will. He told the Corps Officer that he had fought many a battle and now he was going to wear a crown. He will be missed in our Corps as he was always at his post. Crown. He will be missed in our Corps as he was always at his post. His favorite song "Vale of Beulah" was sung, at the funeral service, which was conducted by Adjutant Marsh. On the following Sunday a Memorial service was held. He leaves to monrn a loving wife and brother and adopted daughter. The heartfelt sympathy of the Corps heartfelt sympathy of the Corps gbes out to them. May God romfort the bereaved ones.

Sister Mrs. Lundrigan, Blaketonw (Newfoundland)

Our ranks have been broken again and another of our Soldiers in the person of Sister Mrs. Lundrigan has left her place in the Corps and entered the realms of light.

signt. She was one of the first Soldiers of the Corps. She spent fifty-two years in the Master's service, and in the early days when the Corps was first formed she was a front rank fighter delighting to engage in active service. The last time shc Meeting she gave a glowing testi-mony. In that Meeting three souls were saved and she prayed over them, and rejoiced until the Meeting closed.

On Friday, April 20th, she re-tired to rest feeling quite well, but not more than half an hour after she was taken with a paralytic stroke, and was unable to speak after. Just one week after she was stricken, her spirit took its flight.

The funeral service was conducted by Adjutant Caines and was largely attended. Cadet Anstey soloed "Forever with the Lord." She was greatly loved by all who knew her, and will be greatly missed.

In the Memorial service, which was conducted by Ensign Jones the Corps Officer, many of the com-rades spoke of her godly life, and how she had helped and blessed them. By her wholehearted Salvationism and Christlike life she endeared herself to many hearts.

She leaves to mourn her loss many relatives and friends; three of her sons and her husband are oldiers of the Corps. One son is ne Sergeant-Major, another is oung People's Sergeant-Major. Young People's Sergeant-Ma They feel their loss keenly for was a loving and devoted wife and mother, but in their sorrow they have been able to say, "Father, Thy will be done." They have the conwill be done." They have the consolation that she has gone to a land that is fairer than day.

Sister Reid, Dildo (Nfld.)

Sister Mahel Reid was a sufferer for long years, but was able to get about and do her work. Recently, however, she became very ill and was confined to her home. She was removed from her home to General Hospital where she the following morning. She died the following morning. She assured her husband before he left the Hospital that all was well with her soul. The funeral was con-ducted by Adjutant and Mrs. Caines. assisted by Captain Jennings. A large crowd gathered to pay their respects. To the bereaved husband we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Sister Mrs. Higdon, Dildo (Nfld.)

The call to "Come up higher" has come to Sister Mrs. Thomas Higof New Harbor. She Soldier tried and faithful for many long years, and passed away to her reward at the age of seventy-three Our dear comrade was not able to get to the services for a number of years but during all that time she kept her soul bright and could say with David "Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." She leaves be-She leaves behind a husband and nine children. One son is Commandant Higdon of Charlottetown, P.E.I. reaved we offer our heartfelt sym-

The funeral was conducted by Adutant and Mrs. Caines, assisted by Captain Jennings. A large num-ber gathered to pay their last re-spects. A Memorial service was conducted on the following Sunday. and many spoke of the godly life of the deceased,

THE MOULDING OF CHARACTER

When Aaron was asked to a plain why the Children of Isted were worshipping the golden eil he answered as though the thing greatly astonished him, Teast the read into the fire and there. greatly astonished nim, I cast the gold into the fire and there came out this calf!" Of course, the im-

out this cateful? Of course, the inage took its shape from the mould make the mould. Many people are still expressing surprise at the things fashioned by the moulds they have themselves make the are how that father lauents over his son. "I could not have believed he would turn out so billy: he takes no notice of anything I say to him." But when he was allowed to have his own way if he only teased and cried long enough.

It was much easier to give the child the sugar he cried for that patiently to teach him that he would never get anything by cra-ing for it. Much easier, a few years later, to let him choose his own companions and follow his on pursuits than to take some care pursuits than to take some care about these things, so as at the same time to keep his affection and maintain a wise and firm control over him. The mould was made, over him. The mould was made, and the result might have been expected.

the mother breaking her heart breaking her heart because be danghter is obstituately bent on marrying a godless young man! Yn the mother suffered her child to go where she would not have thought of going herself. True, the girl had professed conversion, but she was not taught how the Law. loves obedience and how there can be no fellowship between light and darkness. "You know young prodarkness. "You know young ple must have a little pleasure," made the excuse for all sorts of worldly frivolity, and what but come out of the mould is nothing more than that for which one might have looked.

When Eli was very old he feely remonstrated with his ungoly, sons, and they did not heed him; but God's charge against Eli ru but God's charge against 21 mg that he did not restain them when he might have done. How different from what God could sy about Abram: "For I know high that he will command his children and his household after him, and he will be a the way of the Ind. they shall keep the way of the Lord to do justice and judgment."

To a great extent our childre will become what our influence makes them. Can they safely follow your example?

AUTOSUGGESTION

AUTOSUGESTION

The effect of mental action on physical feelings has been harms in all ages. M. Coue is not a terphilosopher of a new teahing. Whoever wrote Proverbs 17: 25 understood autosuggestion as well as the Frenchman from Nancy, Feb. Proverb runs: "A merry heat doeth good like a medicine."

We wonder sometimes why prevented to be a medicine. The wonder sometimes why prevented to be a medicine of the provented of people will pay large amounts for lectures and books of autosuggestion when they can find all they need on the relation of mind and hody in the Old and Mr. Testaments. But the trouble will much modern autosuggestion like ham factors.

the emphasis on the human factor, leaving the Divine all out of the

After all the world will always need doctors and hospitals.

NE' GOOD

SOUTH AMERICA

line the Chillian "Cruzado" ("War ory") in the Drinking Bars and Cafes

On Saturday evening, writes Col-nal Hipsey, who has been travelling a Army business in South America, at Army business in South America, a companied Brigadicr Hauswirth a risting a number of Chilian dribk-ing buts and eating houses. These dues might be classed first, second at third, and the third class was michall combined with a low-grade and a

comm is situ

peasa

a livi

out t

droug is pit tion a

the ca

on or into lar fe

compe The rang,

prison

treatm cases.

Army tion.

temnor

the tas

Relie

velope

Institu

Hospit

Shelter attache Quec and th

Colonel

tl

Un

Mic situa

At the front of the establishment At the front of the establishment was the bar with its stores of liquor, thing half the space, and overhead, the left, was a raised platform where agril sang and danced to pianofest accompaniment. Around the jote accompanient. Around the open space were arranged little communications where men and girls could wisk out of view and these were divip patronized. In the open bar unu and girls sat or stood about.

may putonecu. The open and girls sat or stood about. In and out amongst these dupes of the fight and Devil we moved with peffet freedom. All but the proprieus semed glad to see us, and either begit our papers or good-naturedly rissed. Two policemen, however, ser not so easy in their minds and into the properties of the children we had a picture and and is wone little lassie get a dhaming for accepting one from the snager who was "not of our personson."

The sad point about it all is that the sea point about it all is that seed stars of Chillian women and girls send here have sunk to low depths in attending this kind of place and they vie with the men in drink and

My yeahulary consisted of "Cruzo, viente centavos ejemplar," and with this modest supply of the Spanish Inguage I was able to get had been a conversation I said. "No compand Castellano," but what matter-the was the sale of the "Wardy," and that was accomplished.

JAPAN

mitted Salvationists Stand True

On my way to Dairen recently witts Lieut-Colonel Beaumont, of Japan, I had to change trains a Maden, the old capital of Mandaria, and met with two worthy Shatonist comrades, who are shationist comrades, who are to the shationist comrades, who are to the shation of the shation is shation in the shation is a saved at the shation shation is a shation shation in the shation is and health were at a low elbhoragh his former drinking habits, the grate of God transformed file. One year later he removed file. One shation is shation in the shation in the shation in the shation is shation in the shation in the shation in the shation is shation in the shation in the shation in the shation is shation in the sha

Outside his shop hangs a sign.
Single his shop hangs a sign. bation Army Society are conducted by the et are conducted by the Sergeautt. tectasional visits from the tectasional visits from the ten Officers, who are granted a ten Officers, who are granted a ten Officers of the ten officers of the ten of ten of the ten of "The are co in eacl he ar the nev an ent Division Boije, tra coi herg, 1 various with a hearty the r were i hymu. Colonel conte s for the Soldiers their special moulds they have themselves made. Hear how that father laments over his son. "I could not have helieved he would turn out so had by: he takes no notice of anything I say to him." But when he way a child he was allowed to have his own way if he only teased and cried long enough.

It was much easier to give the child the sugar he cried for, than patiently to teach him that he would never get anything by crimg for it. Much easier, a few yets later, to let him choose his ona companious and follow his ona pursuits than to take some care. pursuits than to take some care same time to keep his affection and maintain a wise and firm control over him. The mould was mark, and the result might have been exat the mother who is Look Look at the mother who is breaking her heart because her daughter is obstinately bent or marrying a godless young man! Yet the mother suffered her child to go where she would not have thought of going herself. True, but girl had professed conversion, but she was not taught how the loves obedience and how there can loves obedience and how there and be no fellowship between light and darkness. "You know young goop ple must have a little pleasure," "as made the excuse for all sons of worldly frivolity, and what has come out of the mould is nothing, more than that for which one night have looked. looked.

When Eli was very old he feely wonestrated with his ungoly. When Eli was very old he feely remonstrated with his ungell, sons, and they did not heed his, but God's charge against Eli with the did not restrain the when he might have done. Hay different from what God could si about Abrani: "For I know his, that he will command his childre and his household after him, and they shall keen the way of the Lod. they shall keep the way of the Lord to do justice and judgment."

a great extent our children will hecome what our influence makes them. Can they safely for low your example?

AUTOSUGGESTION

The effect of mental action of physical feelings has been known in all ages. M. Coue is not a ner philosopher of a new teaching the country of the country of while where the proverbs 17: 2, understood autosuggestion as was the Frenchman from Nancy, for the Proverb runs: "A mery head doeth good like a medicine."

We wonder sometimes why gest crowds of people will pay large amounts for lectures and books autosuggestion when they can fed all they need on the relation for the province of the pr nuch modern autosuggestion les in the emphasis on the human factor-leaving the Divine all out of he

After all the world will always need doctors and hospitals.

NEWS GOOD FROM OTHER LANDS

SOUTH AMERICA

illes the Chillan "Cruzado" ("War in the Drinking Bars and Cafes

On Saturday evening, writes Col-yd Hipsey, who has been travelling a Army business in South America, a companied Brigadier Hauswirth nashing a number of Chilian drinkin visiting a number of Chanali drink-ing bars and eating houses. These plates might be classed first, second and third, and the third class was and inition and energy class was critically an eye-opener to me—a

At the front of the establishment At the front of the establishment as the bar with its stores of liquor, taking half the space, and overhead, the left, was a raised platform where agirl sang and danced to pianotes accompaniaent. Around the spa space were arranged little companients where men and girls could dank out of view and these were fully patronized. In the open bar ea and girls sat or stood about. In and out amongst these dupes of the field and Devil we moved with the flesh and Devil we moved with perfect freedom. All but the propri-etor seemed glad to see us, and either toght our papers or good-naturedly think. Two policemen, however, nor not so easy in their minds and were not so easy in their finition and legit a friendly eye upon us. For the children we had a picture and and I saw one little lassic get a thumping for accepting one from the stager who was "not of our per-

The sad point about it all is that his dass of Chilian women and girls find here bave sunk to low depths in attending this kind of place and day vie with the men in drink and

My vocabulary consisted of "Cruz-By occasions consisted of Cruz-sh, winte centavos ejemplar," and with this modest supply of the Span-sh hageage I was able to get though. If any one engaged with at a conversation I said, "No com-grand Castellano," but what matterlim was the sale of the

JAPAN

Mated Salvationists Stand True

On my way to Dairen recently (trites Lieut-Colonel Beaumont, of Japan). I had to change trains at Midden, the old capital of Mandeuri, and met with two worthy Solvinist comrades, who are more entaitive of many isolated Soldiers in these parts.

Instendative of many isolated Soldies in these parts.
Sergam Hiroshi was saved at Diten six years ago. His business and health were at a low ebb though his former drinking habits, set the grace of God transformed to Makten, and now he has a prosumes business. employing seventrous business, employing seven-ten Chinese tailors.

Outide his shop hangs a sign.
Solvation Army Society." Meetgrate conducted by the Sergeant.
The state of the sergeant of the sergeant.
The sergeant of the sergeant. bina Officers, who are granted a fite has on the railway.

Broov Imal commenced a Corps

this nitive town, Kasaoka, Japan. Is in the town, Kasaoka, Japan. Is in or a thread manufacturer, the the course of his lunsiness. Amediatria and combines and Salvation, visiting and making the scattered com-

Java's Sick and Destitute THE ARMY'S BIG FAMILY IN SEMARANG

MONG the Armv's many agencies for the social ameli-oration of the people of the tech Indies, is a Home for sick and destitute people, which has ac-commodation for five hundred, and ommodation for five hundred, and situated at Boegangan.

Mid-Java, in which Semarang is truated, is much over-populated, and with the best of harvests the situated is and with the best of harvests the peasantry barely succeed in getting a living. If a flood comes to wash out the rice crop, or if there is a drought, the position of the people is pitiable in the extreme; starvation and sickness ahound.

Until recent years the people, in these times of stress were left in the care of their chiefs: but when, on one occasion, crowds of starving men, women, and children left their villages and made their way into the towns the control of the people in the course the control of the people in the peo

ing men. women, and children left their villages and made their way into the towns, the sight of their terrible condition so aroused popu-lar feeling that the Executive were compelled to come to their aid. The Resident Governor of Semarang, commenced relief operations by throwing open an old native prison and offering shelter, medical treatment. and food to the worst cases, and later he appealed to the Army to take charge of the Institu-Army to take charge of the Institu-tion. Ever ready to minister to the temporal needs of the people as a stepping stone to their souls' Sal-vation, the Army readily undertook the task, and during the years that have clapsed the Institution has heen most successful heen most successful.

Relief measures have been developed considerably, and now the Institution consists of a special Hospital for the sick and a large Shelter, with an Industrial Colony attached.

Attachen.

Queen Wilhelmina of Holland and the Queen Mother generously contributed to the fund for these buildings.

Ensign Hiorth, a Norwegian Officer who has served in Java for nearly ten years, had charge of the Institution for three and a half years, being assisted hy his wife. Seen by a "War Cry" representa-Seen by a "War Cry" representa-tive during his recent furlough in Europe, the Ensign stated that numbers of starving people, many of then very old, have been driven into the town owing to the failure of the rice crop and are found sleeping on the market-place and elsewhere, but are brought into the Home. One hundred and fifty elsewhere, ou.

Home. One hundred and nity arrived one morning, many of them in a loathsome condition, and were cleansed by the Officers and their helpers. On another occasion helpers. On another occasion eighty hoys and girls, all orphans, were taken from the streets.

eight hoys and girls, all orphans, were taken from the streets. In connection with the enterprise there is a Land Colony where occupation is provided for those who are able to work. The boys and girls, in addition to their schooling, are instructed in useful occupations to fit them for future years.

Meetings held in the Home have been richly blessed. On Sunday mornings at seven-thirty a service is held for boys and girls, and at nine a Meeting for adults, while in the afternoon the Officers conduct an open-air gathering in the town at which often a thousand neople will be present. Another Meeting is held in the Institution in the cyening. The penitent form is often lined with seekers and many Soldiers have been enrolled.

The Officers in charge of the Boegangan Institution, not only

Boegangan Institution, not only look after their big family of sick and destitute, but also regularly visit Semarang prison. Every Sunday a Meeting is held with the prisoners, who are mostly Euro-peans serving sentences ranging from one to twenty years.

DENMARK

Colonel Gundersen's Welcome as the Press Saw It

Chief Officers of the Army ntinually walking on," states are continually walking on," states one of the Copenhagen newspapers, in each of which appeared photo-graphs and letterpress describing the arrival of Colonel Gundersen, the new Territorial Commander for the arrival of Colonel Gundersen, the new Territorial Commander for Denmark, At the station he received an enthusiastic welcome from "a Division of Cadets, led by Major Boije, with banners and an orchestra conducted hy Brigadier Bandsherg, the Financial Secretary, a party of representatives of Army administration in the city, and various Divisional Commanders, with all the chief Officers. After hearty greetings the party went to the reception-room where they were received with the national hymn. 'King Christian', Lieut-Colonel Knott made a short welcome speech and called for hurrahs for the new Lender, but when they did not get this so sound well, the Soldiers were challenged to greet their new Commander by the special homage of 'Amen!' that was shouted with fire,"

From this quaint account it will he gathered that Colonel Gundersen, who was accompanied by Mrs. Gundersen and their daughter, met with a hearty reception.

KOREA

By Reason of The Army's Campaign Barbers Have Decided to Abstain

Thirty thousand copies of the Korean "Anti-Drink War Cry" have been sold, a further reprint of four thousand after the original edition being made necessary by the great demand. A special "boommarch" was arranged in Seoul, where the Boy's Band, with Staff-Captain Hill, Adjutant Cheesman, and a number of Officers paraded the streets and sold wearly fourteen fundred copies. Adjutant Salishury was passing a shop when a man came out and gripping his hand exclaimed:

"We appreciate our own people siling the 'War Cry' and telling us was arranged in Seoul.

hand exclaimed:

"We appreciate our own people selling the 'War Cry' and telling us about the evils of drink, but for you foreigners to come to Korea and talk about things that will drag the nation down, is a thing we appreciate ever so much more!"

Interesting Story Associated With the Opening of Army Work in Milan

An English Officer stationed in Italy went out in a heavy down-All Engish Omcer stationed in Italy went out in a heavy down-pour of rain to visit a family at a farmhouse. There, to utilize the occasion, she held a Meeting, as a result of which the farmer's son found Salvation. The Salvationist passed on, but the lad remained, to learn that the will of God for him was that he also should become a Salvationist.

Some years later saw him as a Captain, opening the Army's work in Milan, without means or friends, while a severe spell of frost gripped the city. Eventually a working man in the Porte Sempoine district took pity on the strangely uniformed Officer and his Cadet assistant offering them the hospitality of his ed Officer and his Cadet assistant. offering them the hospitality of his humble home. They gladly accepted the offer and after a little while were able to hire a room on the second floor of that large tenement huilding. Amid such lowly conditions the Army's work actually began, for almost immediately Meetings were arranged amongst Meetings were arranged amongst the neighboring tenants, who at-tended in good numbers. The gatherings were sometimes turbulent. hut opposition only increased the interest and soon the room proved far too small to accommo-date all who desired to hear the Salvationists. Consequently a small Hall was hired on the ground floor of the same building, and here, each night, interested little audiences gathered to hear the Salvation message.

The towns and villages around Milan also heard of the Salvation Army, for each week the Officer and Cadet set out on "War Cry" selling expeditions. Whilst engaged on one of these journeys our controlled wars as well as the control of the control gaged on one of these journeys our comrades were accosted by two detectives, who took them to the Commissioner of Public Safety, who cross-examined and detained them for distributing literature containing unorthodox propaganda. A longer term of imprisonment than our comrades had imagined was served.

These early-day experiences are called to mind by the fact that the Milan Corps, now a flourishing concern, has just celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary and they are made of greater interest to English readers by the fact that the Mrs. Lieut.-Colonel Salter of the Foreign Office, London.

Four men who had each bought a copy of the "War Cry" on the Saturday came to the Sunday Meetings and three were converted.

The effect of this literature campaign is widespread. From the Scoul Press we quote the follow-the barbers in Floumachi police ward have decided to be-come abstainers and non-smokers. police ward and to use the money thus saved for charitable purposes."

The "Honmachi" is the largest Japanese street in Seoul and con-tains a number of well-staffed Korean and Japanese barbers'

EDITORIAL NOTES

A Comradely Spirit

Reports from various parts of the Territory record, with increasing and pleasing frequency, visits paid by Bands and Songster Brigades to Corps other than their own, announcements made show that many other visits of this character are to take place. This is both a many other visits of this character are to take place. This is both a most helpful sign of the existence of a right and comradely spirit, and a means of increasing it.

In the first place, it is most encouraging to the Soldiery of one town to know that their comrades of another are so practically interfested in their neighbors affairs that they are ready to make some sacrifice of time and money to visit fice of time and money to visit them and give them the benefit of their presence and assistance.

It is especially helpful to young onverts, and those who have re-Converts, and those who have te-cently joined themselves to us, as an illustration of the universality and common purpose of the Or-ganization of which they now form

The presence of strangers interest to the proceedings and at-tracts people to the meetings, be-sides calling attention to the fact that the Army is not comprehended, lock, stock and barrel, in what may be found in any one locality.

The opportunities offered for Salvation work by such visitations often give occasion for the use and development of hitherto undreamit of talent in the persons concerned, of talent in the persons concerned, and the result is general gain.

It may be well imagined that a smaller Corps, which is not fortunate enough to possess a Band or Brigade, hails, with great delight, a visit from those of a larger, and to Bandsmen and Songsters themselves it is people an opportunity is usually an opportunity of exercising their powers for ser-vice in a manner which they have not the chance of doing when at home where there may be so many more to share in the fight

COLONEL McMILLAN MAKING GOOD PROGRESS

We are glad to announce that the condition of Colonel McMillan, the Chief Secretary, continues to improve, and there is every hope that a good and complete recovery will be made.

There must, of course, be allowed time for all this to be accomplished, and it would be premature to suppose that the trying condition associated with the Colonel's ness are all at an end. This will, we doubt not, be his happy experience in due course.

Meanwhile let everyone give God thanks for the goodness already manifested, and earnestly pray that under His good Hand all may continue to go well.

Mrs. McMillan is grateful for the kindly sympathy which has been manifested, and asks for a continuance of prayer on the Colonel's behalf.

EXTRACTS FROM

GENERAL'S JOURNALS

(Edited by Lieut.-Colonel H. L. Taylor)

The Army Hostels for Bereaved Relatives to War Graves—Horr of English Prison System—The General's Blessing "Comes Home to Roost"—Prisoner and "that White-haired "—Awful Conditions in Russia—Brave Girl Officer who Suffered Incarceration— Bitter Indictment of Sin

Thursday, July 20th.—To dentist at 9.15—and for once an agreeable visit! At one o'clock, F. to D.C.'s Council at ouncil at Clapton; self to I.H.Q. Letters full of interest. The Chief, who is on furlough on the Contin-ent, writes me concerning our concerning our

"I go to Germany to-morrow morning. I have spent these three days in looking at our Hostels here days in looking at our mosters here and making some enquiry into their efficiency and usefulness. I am more than delighted, and am sure if you could see the little I have seen you would urge that we should try and carry on. Nohody else is doing would urge that we should try and carry on. Nolody else is doing anything of the sort.

"Our people take these sorrowing ones to their graves, and pray with them and comfort them, and influence them for God and the Army, in a wonderful fashion. At Amiens on Sunday night there were twenty-seven people staying at the Hostel every one of them came to the service held, and it is a long time since I saw big men weep like they did at that Meeting.

I saw big men weep like they did at that Meeting.

"People are coming to us in larger numbers this year than ever.

We sometimes find the graves that the Government Department has failed to locate. I have met people these days from Africa, New Zeal-these days from Africa, New Zeal-and, Canada, and the United States, who have come to our place in preference to any other," Monday, 24th.—I.H.Q. Printers' strike is holding up some very im-portant work of ours, though our Works at St. Albans are not affected.

Report from Whatmore (Com-Report from Whatmore (Commissioner)-on successful opening of Sydney Memorial to the Founder—a Home for Men; cost forty-two thousand pounds. A worthy scheme, Day crowded with small matters, Report of the Inquiry Committee

Report of the inquiry Committee (which I have supported) on the Prison System in England, issued—"English Prisons To-day." Have only glanced at the six hundred pages; much of it sad—ghastly—nay, horrible! Here are one or two sentences of the concluding

To sum up: the essential features of our present penal system lie in the confinement of offenders under unnatural conditions, in an environment in which many of the environment in which many of the normal human functions become inoperative. Speech and association with one's fellow-men-the most elementary, of human rights—if not wholly eliminated in prison life, are at least subjected to the severest limitations; while mutual aid and all moral and social cooperation are forbidden.

"In brief, the system may be defined as the deptivation of every influence and the prohibition of every activity beyond the bare necessities of life. "

every activity h

ecessities of life. . . ."
As to the shocking misuse of the isoners many instances are given.

Here is one:
"Talked to a gypsy woman with a baby nine weeks old. Sentence, six months for fortune-telling Matron encourages her to be out in the exercise ground as much as possi-ble, but felt it an abominable thing to condemn a baby to pass the first six months of its life in prison. The woman has six children. The father is doing his best for the other

Tuesday, 25th.-Another crowded Delayed this morning by day. Delayed this morning by un-paralleled block in the street traffic. Interviews with Smith (Colonel), going to Kenya at once; and Ham-ilton (Brigadier), returned from glitton (Brigadier), returned from collecting for us in India. He will now help me with the completion of the British Memorial to the founder. This has now become of the first importance. Have about $170,000 in hand, but need at least $60,000 more. Has done well in at 6.30. Spoke to Staff Lodge Officers assembled of the character of true work. Home at 8.30; read a little and to hed early.

Amongst the correspondence to-day an incident reported by Rich-ards (Staff-Captain) from Sydney:

ards (Staff-Captain) from Sydney:
"In visiting Katoomba, one of the Corps in this Division, beautifully situated up in the Blue Mountains, teame in touch with the following, which I thought would interest you.
"A young man came up to the Officer during our. Saturday night open-air meeting saying he felt the working of the Holy Spirit in his heart, and he would like to be saved. We were only too delighted to pray with him and help him into was Rudolf, and he came to Australia from Switzerland. When he was a boy in Berne, you, General; when a boy in Berne, you. General: when passing him after an open-air gathering, placed your hand on his head and said: 'God bless you. little

"He had never been able to forget that action and your words, and it was this influence which had; by the Holy Spirit's striving, made him the Holy Spirit's striving, made him come that hight and ask to be saved. You will be pleased to know that he has now linked up with the Corps and is an active worker both influence and cut "

Corps and is an active worker not indoors and out?

Wednesday, 26th.—My letters included one from Finland, referring to my recent visit to the Men's Prison at Helsingfors:

Prison at Helsingfors:

One of the prisoners has written to Brigadier Randelin a letter, in which he says:

"You cannot imagine my feelings when General Booth was here. Although most of the men here are very hard, the white-haired man, with his noble brow, awakened perfect were the large than the property was a support to the property of the property of the property was a supported to the property of the property was a support to the property was a support to the property of the property was a support to the property of the property was a support to the property of the property was a support to the property of the property of the property was a support to the property of the pr with his nofite brow, awakened perfect reverence in our bosoms and a strong desire for that peace which rested over him and shined from his eyes. So were my feelings—and I am longing for that peace!"
Thursday, 27th—Correspondence all the morning. Then worked on all the morning. Then worked on "Sacraments" for Handbook. Howard came to tea at 4 o'clock. Long and important talk. He seems very bright and alert.

Ogrim (Commissioner, Germany)

forwards me a letter sent Rothstein (Lieut.-Colone).
has gone to Russia with fooder has gone to Mussia with appage by a wealthy German. He sais "Well, dear Commissioner, I

"Well, dear Commissioner, has we are!
"There were two waggons of his Red Cross, two from the Baptian and our one. On the way we wagon began to burn, so we had to leave the train and it had to leave the train and it had to ke changed. The result was, fia we arrived at Moscow on Sunday."

night.
"What we saw in the Station, he Place before the Station, and in the Station, the Station of Station, and in the Station, and in the Station, and in the Station, the Station of Statio streets, I can't tell you! Thousan of people, old and young his hungry, suffering dying! I had that they came from Samara and Saratow. The people were relinaked, full of dirt and thousand and millions of parasites' The Arm here has a little Hall, well situated holding about 150 people, and there are some 40 Soldiers and Records The only Officer is a nice gifted get a Russian Finn. She speaks Sw. dish and a little English. The Sa dish and a little English. The Sa-diers also are nice people, and may of them speak German.

"The Ensign came to the Re Cross to call on me. Hop, ral she was to see a few Comment She had been in prison for nice months, but after permission we given for Meetings, she cane of But they are so poor here, and has only potatoes and black breat?

Friday, August 4th.-Noticed my reading to-day a striking ness, by a clever and noted man to the self-destroying character of sa

I quote from it:
"The fact of my having here common prisoner of a common in must frankly accept, and curous as it may seem one of the things I shall have to teach myself is not to be ashamed of it. I must accept it as a punishment, and if one ashamed of having been punished one might just as well never hat heen punished at all. Of course there are many things of which I was convicted that I had not done but, then, there are many thing of which I was convicted that land done, and a still greater number of done, and a was convicted that I ad done, and a still greater number of things, in any life for which I was never intificied at all. . . I may say to myself that I grand myel and that nobody great or soil can be ruined, except by his on haid. I am quite ready to say a This pittless indictment I big without pity against myself. Then ble as was what the world did one, what I did to myself was in more terrible still?"

Surely here is an instance of ha Surely here is an instance of that godly sorrow which worketh it pentance and joy!

SELF-DENIAL EFFORT

Important Notice

For a full account of the Gittle for a full account of the func-lingathering Meeting, led by Coa-missioner Sowton in the Toron-Temple, with particulars as, 60 fer results of the Campaign, set and week's "War Cry."

Commissioner de Groot witness, a short white ago, when on his way the Headquarters at Berne, a district ing railway accident which caused he death of a number of passengers and serious injuries to others. Hurring to the scene of the disaster the Commissioner helped in the work of the cue, himself extricating a lady and her daughter from a difficult piece. Commissioner de Groot witnessel

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT MOUNT PLEASANT

The Ninth Anniversary of the The Ninth Anniversary of the promotion to Glory of one hundred and sixty-seven Salvationists, through the sinking of the "Empress of Ireland" in the St. Lawpress of Ireland" in the St. Lawrence, was commemorated in the Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto, on Tuesday, May 29th. Magnificent weather favored the occasion, and a goodly company of Salvationists assembled, the Cadets from the Training College of Salvationists. the Training College considerably increasing the number.
Commissioner Sowton conducted

Commissioner Sowton conducted the service, and rarely can the open-ing song. "Rock of Ages," have been sung with deeper pathos and feeling than it was on this occasion where his direction.

Mrs. Commissioner Sowton of Mrs. Commissioner Sowton of fered prayer, tendering God thanks for all His goodness, including the porious hope which was the portion of all His people everywhere. She rejoiced that He was ever the same unchanging God, and that even the homegoing of so many precious contrades as those now in mind, had proved the greating of the long and the reality of ness of His love and the reality of the comfort He affords. She prayed the contort tre autorus. She prayed that all might emulate the spirit of those whose death was being commemorated, and especially did she commend to God the members of the families which were hereaved foll that occasion.

Fervent "Amens" endorsed the prayer at intervals, but all through prayer at intervals, but an through is course there were other endorse-ments, for from close-by trees on other side of Mrs. Sowton birds sang loud and clear what was doubtless, in bird-language, a song al praise to the God of all creation. After "Jesus Lover of my soul" was sing, Brigadier Attwell read vas sing, Brigadier Attwell read the 86th Pashn, that being the Schmure portion which Colonel Maidment, the Chief Secretary of that day, had read at the farewell service of the Canadian Contingent just about to sail for the International Congress in London, Enjabed, Archive manurer, was fee. gland. Another memory was re-called by the singing of "I will guide thee." which had been given ut by Commissioner Rees, the then Territorial Commander, and sung at be same farewell service.

At this juncture, Songster Grace At this juncture, Songster Grace liamagai—at the time of the claimity a small child, but now a milormed Salvationist—placed on the massive monument, which sands and the many Salvationists' graves, a memorial wreath, all the more effective hecause of its beautiful similation. nore ence... titul simplicity.

utul simplicity. "The survivors present were Brig-adier and Mrs. Attwell, Ensign Wil-son, Ensign Spooner, Ensign Keith, Oplain Green, Brother and Sister Grenawa, Brother and Sister Grook, and Sister Green Hanna-gan, Mesages were read by Ein-sim Wilson-Brother and Sister Brooks, and Sister Grace Hanna-gan, Mesages were read by Einsail. Messages were read by Eli-sign Wilson from other survivors fiable to be present: Lient.-Col-ciel Morris, Brigadier McAnmond, Brother McIntyre, and Brother Messures, together with a message from the Persian Prothe Regina Band.

In his address, marked by deep feling, the Commissioner suitably felered to the disaster paying referred to the disaster, paying plendid tribute to those promoted to Glory on that occasion, especial naming Commissioner Rees. Philipped at foot of column 4) inion versa at Spi Sowto assiste Lieut. Field grami and out fi preser strum Sta the C addre noon Pestiv In t Rally. took missi The s believ The Λm Byers the S of hi of O Corps day o Comn

surier live f

The which popul the b ern C 10t v is mn a goo er a visit the 1

was c citizer the C story out th intens er re At th sioner rende in the

> On and p

Conn

Rothstein (Licut. Colone) (signature to Russia with food great a wealthy German. He says: Well, dear Commissioner, ho

"There were two waggons of the ded Cross, two from the Baptas and our one. On the way or wagon began to hurn, so we had hanged. The result was, that we rrived at Moscow on Sunday ight. "What we saw in the Station, the Station, and in the Place before the Station, and in the treets. I can't tell you! Thousands f people, old and young lying f people, old and young, big-ungry, suffering, dying! I head hat they came from Samara and aratow. The people were par-laked, full of dirt and thousard nd millions of parasites The Arms ere has a little Hall well situate olding about 150 people, and there re some 40 Soldiers and Remails

The only Officer is a nice gifted get.
Russian Finn. She speaks See lish and a little English. The Sk

isn and a nive English, the Sa-iers also are nice people, and man f them speak German.

"The Ensign came to the Rd

ross to call on me. How glad he was to see a few Comrade!

he was to see a few Comrada nonths, but after permission will invent for Meetings, she came of the they are so poor here, and have only potatoes and black bread.

Friday, August 4th.-Noticel in ny reading to-day a striking valuess, by a clever and noted man, be self-destroying character of in quote from it:

"The fact of my having been a ommon prisoner of a common jal must frankly accept, and carin it may seem, one of the things shall have to teach myself is not o be ashamed of it. I must access

o be assumed of it. I must aces t as a punishment, and if one's ishamed of having been punished one might just as well never har been punished at all. Of some here are many things of which was convicted that I had not door, was convicted that I had not used to that, then, there are many thing if which I was convicted that had one, and a still greater number of hings in my life, for which! will ever intificted at all I. I may where inflicted at all. I make any to myself that I ruined myself that I ruined myself and that nobody great or small can be ruined except by his on anid. I am quite ready to say a this pittless indictment I have

This pitiless indictment I him without pity against myself. Tem-

de as was what the world ne, what I did to myself

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT MOUNT PLEASANT

june 9th, 1923

The Ninth Anniversary of the promotion to Glory of one hundred and sixty-seven Salvationists, and sixty-seven Salvationists, through the sinking of the "Empress of Ireland" in the St. Lawpress of Ireland in the St. Law-rence, was commemorated in the Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toron-to, on Tucsday, May 29th. Magnifi-tent weather favored the occasion-and a goodly company of Salva-tionists assembled, the Cadets from tionists assembled, the Cadets from the Training College considerably increasing the number. Commissioner Sowton conducted the service, and rarely can the open-ing song, "Rock of Ages," have heen sung with deeper pathos and felling than it was on this occasion where his direction.

feeling than it was on this occasion under his direction.

Mrs. Commissioner Sowton offered prayer, tendering God thanks for all His goodness, including Hoforious hope which was the partion of all His people everywhere. She rejoiced that He was ever the same unchanging God, and find even the homegoing of so many precious comrades as those now in mind, had proved the greathies of His love and the reality of the comfort He affords. She prayed that all might enulate the spirit the comfort rie autorus. She prayed that all might emulate the spirit of those whose death was being commemorated, and especially did she commend to God the members of the families which were hereaved ful that occasion.

- Fervent "Amens" endorsed the Ferreit "Amens" endorsed the prayer at intervals, but all through its course there were other endorsesites, for from close-by trees on other side of Mrs. Sowton birds sing loud and clear what was doubless, in bird-language, a song figratise to the God of all creation. "After "Jesus Lover of my soul" was sung, Brigadier Attwell read the 46th Psalm, that being the Scripture portion which Colonel Maidment, the Chief Severetary of that day, had read at the farewell comment, the Collect Secretary of that day, had read at the farewell service of the Canadian Contingent just about to sail for the Inter-platonal Congress in London, England Another ways and the Collect Secretary of the Intergand. Another memory was re-called by the singing of "I will gaide thee," which had been given out by Commissioner Rees, the then Territorial Commander, and sung at the same farewell service.

"At this juncture, Songster Grace Hamagan—at the time of the clamity a small child, but now a miformed Salvationist—placed on the massive monument, which stands amid the many Salvationists' graves, a memorial wreath, all the nore effective because of its beautild simplicity.

The survivors present were Brigadie and Mrs. Attwell. Ensign Wilson. Ensign Spooter, Ensign Keith.
Captui Green. Brother and Sister
Grenway. Brother and Sister
Greenway. Brother and Sister
Brooks and Sister Green Hannagm. Messages were read by Ensign Wilson from exhemitations. gan. Messages were read by En-sign Wilson from other survivors spin wilson from other survivors while to be present; "Lient-Coleme Morris, Brigadier McAmmond, holler McIntyre," and Brother Measures, together with a message from the Regima Band, in his address, marked by deep feiting the Commissioner surveils.

feeling the Commissioner suitably related to the disaster, paying slendid tribute to those promoted to Glory on that occasion, especially, naming Commissioner Rec. Colonel Maidment, Brigadder Hunt-Continued at foot of column 4)

COMMISSIONER SOWTON

Conducts a Field Day at London and visits Aylmer Tillsonburg and Norwich

at Springbank Park. Commissioner Sowton was in charge of affairs, assisted by the Field Secretary, Lient-Colonel Miller, the Candi-dates' Secretary. Lient-Colonel Adly, the Divisional, Staff and Field Offs. Adhy, the D Field Officers.

In the afternoon a Musical Programme was given by the Bands and Songsters of the city and nearby Corps. The weather turned out fine and a large crowd was present to enjoy the vocal and in-

Staff-Captain Penfold welcomed the Commissioner who gave a brief address. The halance of the aftertoon was given up to the Musical Festival.

In the evening the crowd gather-of again for a great Sylvation Rally. Several of the Field Officers took part in this service and after a solo by Colonel Adby the Com-missioner addressed the Meeting. The stirring appeal of the Commissioner to the crowd assembled to surrender their lives to Christ and live for the glory of God will, we believe, produce fruit for eternity

The massed Bands assisted at this service, also city Songsters.

Among the visitors were Major Byers, Divisional Commander, for the Styriford Division, and several of hi Officers, and a large number of Officers and Soldiers from the Corns in the Division. Corps in the Division. It was a day of blessing and happiness and one long to be remembered by all one long to be remembered by an present.

Following the Field Day the Commissioner, accompanied by Colonel Alby and Staff-Captain Penfold whited some of the Corps in the London Division.

Meeting in Town Hall.

The first stop was at Aylmer, which is a thriving town of, 2,500 population, situated in the mids! of the best dairying district in Western Ontario. While our forces are not very strong here, still the Vriny not very strong here, still the viruly is unell respected, and we are winning our way. In spite of the fact that it had been a very warm day a good number gathered in the Town Hall to give the Commission. er a hearty welcome on his first visit to their town. Mayor Miller was on the platform, and after being presented by Staff Captain Penfold, extended, on behalf of the citizens, a very heacty welcome to the Commissioner. The wonderful story of the Army's work through-out the world was listened to with out the world was listened to with intense interest as the Commission-related stirring incidents from his own experiences in many lands, At the conclusion of the Commissioner's address Colonel Adby soloed. The Band, from St. Thomsendered valuable assistance both in the open-air and inside. We are true that 'Aylmer' will understand the Army better as a result of the Commissioner's visit, where the Commissioner's visit, where the Commissioner's visit, where the Commissioner's visit.

On Saturday the Commissioner's very thea and party journeyed on to Tillsou-living where the Campaignt opened with an open-air service. This Rob

HE Forty-First Anniversary of the opening of the Salvation Army work in the Domition of Canada was celebrated at Louden en M y 24th by an Vaniversary Field Day, which was held at Springbank Park. Commissioner Stoneon was in absence of efficiency and program of efficiency and program of the Many Danile was present to the stock Band, which gave great as-sistance throughout the week-end. Mayor Rennie was present to give Commissioner a welcome behalf of the citizens, and spoke very feelingly of the good work ac-complished by the Army during the Great War:

Crowded the sidewalks

A great throng of hundreds of people crowded the sidewalks and listened attentively as the Commis-sioner related, in his own forceful sioner related, in his own foreein way, the wonderful story of Army progress and work. At the conclusion of the open-air service a Meeting was held in the Army Hall for the Soldiers and Friends. A good crowd gathered to hear the Commissioner's address, and as he presented the standard of life and service of a Salvation Army Soldier, one could see that the message was finding its way to their hearts.

on Sunday morning after the open-air service, the Hall was filled again to hear the Commissioner who presented the Army's standard of a holy life, and the possibility of this experience for everyone in the Hall. At the conclusion of the service a man and his wife, who had been backsliders for some time, came weening to the neutrine form. came weeping to the penitent form. came weeping to the penitent form. A great deal of conviction was present in the Meeting, and had time permitted, we helive, greater results would have heen attained in the prayer meeting. However, we had to journey on to Norwich for the final service of the Campaign.

The opening Meeting in Norwich was held in the Presbyterian Church, and a splendid crowd greeted the Commissioner on his arrival. The Army is getting well established, and two of the four Councillors ware Salvation Army Soldiers. The service in the Church was presided over by Reeve Carrol, who was presented by Staff-Captain Penfold.

The Commissioner's theme was, "Glimpses of Army work in many Lands," and we feel that a great deal was done to enlighten those present concerning the work of mercy and love of the Salvation Army. At the conclusion of the Commissioner's lecture, and after a solo by Colonel Adby, Councillor Wileox mayed a vote of thanks, which was heartily seconded by Councillor Saunders.

Councillor Saunders.

The last Algeting of the tone was conducted in our own Hall at night when over two heindred people were present to listen to the Commissioner. As the address proceeded one could see conviction stamped in the faces of those present, and after a hard-fought prayer meeting two souls sufrendered.

Colonel Adhy assisted splendidy throughout the Campaign, also the inWoodstock and Stankhomas Bands. All the places visited extended a very chearty invitation to the Com-

All the places visited extended a very thearty invitation to the Commissioner to return again as soon as possible.

Robert Penfold, Staff-Captain, promote the commissioner to the commiss

MRS. COMMISSIONER SOWTON

Gives Missionary Lecture at Brant-ford, also Addresses Home League Members

On Thursday evening, May 10th, On Thursday evening, May 10th, Mrs. Commissioner Sowton gave her lecture, "A trip to the borders of Tibet," at Brautford. For upwards of two hours she captivated her audience as she related the thrilling experiences encountered on her Missionary journey. There was a good attendance and the Band and Songsters assisted in the Meeting. In the afternoon Mrs. Sowton, assisted by Mrs. Lieut.-Colonel Hargrave, spoke to the Home League members upon he Home League members upon 'Mother's influence." The friends "Mother's influence." The friends and Corps will give Mrs. Sowton a hearty welcome when she returns

BRIGADIER BARR'S NEW APPOINTMENT

As intimated in a previous issue, Brigadier and Mrs. Barr have re-ceived orders to farewell from the Montreal Division, and they are already in the midst of a numerous engagement list prior to taking their departure.

The Commissioner is now in a

The Commissioner is now in a position to amounce that the General has appointed Brigadler Barr to be Chief Secretary for the British West Indies Territory under Colonel John T. Hillary, Territorial Commander, with Headquarters at Kingston, Jamaica. Brigadier and Mrs. Barr will, all being well, be leaving Canada for their new appointment early in July.

The "War Cry" will not course, have something to say shortly about have something to say shortly about the careers of our out-going com-rade Officers. Meanwhile, we also and all to join in praise at God for the new and enlarged op-portunity of service opened out to Brigadier and Mrs. Barr by this Brigadier and Mrs. Barr by this appointment, and to pray that His blessing may be with them in rich abundance in their new sphere of

INTERNATIONAL PARS

The veteran Commissioner Ridsdel, who is about to complete his fiftieth year of Officership, has been unwell for several months past, but is now for severa .... nutch hetter. * * *

During his recent tour amongst the native Corps of South Africa, Com-missioner Hay initiated foundation-digging for native Halls at Durban and Pretoria.

The "Call to Arms" campaign is progressing in Cevlon. At Talampitive a week's campaign was marked with soul-saving scenes and a new Hall was opened by the police magis-trate, the whole of Talampitiya, with its nineteen hamlets, taking a holiday in honor of the occasion er and others. In conclusion, the Commissioner emphasized the importance of all present seizing, the opportunity for re-dedication to the service of God in the seeking and the saving of the lost.

The closing prayer was offered by Briggdier Greenwood, an Officer from the Old Country, whe, with Mrs. Greenwood was present

Mrs. Greenwood was present.

ole as was what the word gas was what the word gas one, what I did to myself was in more terrible still!" surely here is an instance of that codly sorrow which worketh is centance and joy! SELF-DENIAL EFFORT

Important Notice

For a full account of the first grow a 1001 account of the just a nguthering Meeting, led by Comissioner Sowton in the Torato Temple, with particulars as, to be estiles of the Campaign, see not veek's "War Cry."

Commissioner de Groot witnessed short while ago, when on his way.

he Headquarters at Berne, a diguration of the caused like an additional way accident which caused like a state of the caused like a state of the caused like and the caused like a state of the caused lin ng railway accident when cases as eath of a number of passengers all erious injuries to others. Harring o the scene of the disaster the Commissioner helped in the work of struck, himself extricating a lady and ier daughter from a difficult plass.

FARM LABOR SCARCE

Ja 8 9th, 1923

This little volume fully justifies its title by presenting some unchall-engeable data in support of the Army Founder's decision to make the drum a potent instrument in Salvation propaganda. Some re-ligionists have raised pious object-ions to the Army drum. Sceptics have ridiculed it, and worldlywise people have made it the subject of satire. But this hook reveals somesattie. But this hook reveals some-thing at any rate of what has been accomplished under the blessing of God throught the medium of this much-despitsed but effective piece of Salvation Army equipment.

If you are a sentimentalist, these pages will stir your imagination. Afternating between laughter and tears you will praise God for the many ways in which the drum, with its "thumping" message, has be-come sanctified to hearts and many ways in which the drunt, with its "thumping" message, has be-come sanctified to hearts and homes. The charming simplicity of the volume is as refreshing as its argument is compelling. Larry, to whom we are introduc-

Larry, to whom we are introduced in chapter I., was as hig a sinner as the devil could make him. After telling us in his own inimitable way something of his life before and after conversion, he says:

"Six weeks after I was saved they

"Six weeks after I was saved they had a hand, an asked me would I play the big drum. It was all I could do for the Lord; and I was glad to. I got to speak an' to pray in the Meetings after that; but I could always help work, indoor an' out, wi' the drum. When Go changed my life it was four years ago an' I have served Him faithful eyer since." ever since.

ful ever since." We make the acquaintance of many such characters as Larry, and each has a story to tell of equal interest. "The Drum Afield" and "The Village Drum" are two of the most enthralling chapters, the lagrer having a delightful quaintness with its dialect and clever picture-drawing of a phase of Army fighting which was most fruitful in Salvation results. tion results.
The writer has weaved the Army dingy slum and sweeping avenue, the Army drum has given its rous-ing invitation.

*"The Army Drum," by the late Mrs. Colonel Brengle. Cloth boards 179 Fages. Order from the Trade Secretary, 20 Albert Street, Toronto. Price 60c., postage 3c.

THE SOLDIER SPIRIT

To have the Soldier spirit is to have that sort of a heart which will of its own accord choose a life of war in order to save souls. He who has this spirit will not require to be driven on by arguments, but will prefer this course of life to any orfher; yea, it will be his delight. He would rather go out to fight than stay at home at ease. To have the Soldier spirit is to

ROCKS OF GOD

By COMMISSIONER W. ELWIN OLIPHANT

"And I say also unto thee. That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build My Church; and the yates of Hell shall not prevail against

F one reads these words as I did often in Rome one is drawn involuntarily to the pile of building of St. Peter's Church and the Vatican. The famous cathedral is built on a rock. But as you sit bewildered by the many-colored vestments of the priests, and the complicated service of worship, you find yourself asking the question, "Did our Lord mean us to interpret His words in such a physical and material way? Had not the Master rather the soul of Peter in mind?"

Weak and erring one reads these words as I did

Weak and erring

From all we know of the anxiety of Jesus for His weak and erring or Jesus for His weak and erring servant it seems most probable that Christ was determined, if possible, to make Peter a rock of character, which He plainly saw he was not, Indeed. Peter was anything but a rock then or up to the time of the Master's condemnation and death. He was sand, or at most sandstone.

He was sand, or at most sandstone. Herein it seems to me is encouragement for us whose characters are made of similar loose material. God can make us rocks of strength for Ilis work and for others. How? All along the beautiful road of the French and Italian Riviera there are two elements which have there are two elements which have contributed to make that road most beautiful in Europe. T are the blue sea and the sa Above these two elements are rocks which have been formed the sand. the action of the water and time upon the very sand, first into sand-stone and then into rock. What makes this road so charming is that Nature and the architect have com-bined to make the rocks a very paradise of beauty. Gorgeous and substantial huildings abound on every hand, and the eye is satisfied and refreshed by the variety of tree and flower.

Wind compressed It

All once upon a time, was shift-ing, whirling, driving saud. But the waves heat it down; the wind com-pressed it; Nature by storm hard-ened it into sandstone, and time did the rest.

This is the way God takes with most of us. He finds us weak: He leaves us strong. He finds us sand: He leaves us a rock on which He builds according to His purposes. He kneads us by trials: He hardens us by temptations: He pulverless further the sand of our natures by sickness and disappointments and sickness and disappointments and, iffe's vicissitudes, and uses these as the very tools to make our characters like the cement of a fixed purpose which He forms into a highway of traffic for others. Only, there is one thing to remember. We are not impassive,

The sand is. We are hody, soul, and spirit. We are free agents. We are a living organism of passions, of will, of possibilities for good or evil. The sand has no choice. The sand is weak, uncertain, incoherent. That is the resemblance. We possess a will to choose. That is the difference.

Our wills are ours We know not how, Our wills are ours To make them Thine.

Oh, that is the secret. The sand is helpless. We are not. We can co-operate with God and thus hecome a consistent whole upon which He and others may depend and may build. Yield then your members which have been instruments of unrighteousness to Him who can and will turn them into instruments not only of righteous-ness but of usefulness and strength ness but of and beauty.

Mild and sunny

Mild and sunny

Sometimes nature takes a sterner way of rock-forming. Nature in Italy is comparatively mild and sunny. It is time which is the great agent of disintegration and solidification—time and the evershining sun and the ever-energizing effect of turner and visid. effect of water and wind, In grim Switzerland she works hy all these means, but she works more slowly by ice pressure. Above, the glaciers are ever moving, grinding, and working. Below, the water is ever softening and then solidifying. till other agents turn the blue mud-into solid rock granite or numberless stones comented together into massive rocks on which many a charming Alpine village is built and kept green and fruitful because it is fed from above.

fed from above.

Depend upon it, if we do not yield to God's will by His gentle pressure. He will employ His more severe pressure. His purpose is character-rockmaking on which He can build His Church. If the gentler means fail with us He will not eventually hesitate to employ the Tougher and stronger.

eventually hesitate to employ the rougher, and stronger.

Say then cheerfully and submissively, "Thy will be done in me."

Not merely to bear the unavoidable, but to be the participator in the purposes of God for me, alborer with Him. a discerner and a doer of that will. God the power, and I the willing instrument—these two forming by all the accidents, vicissitudes, and events of life's appointments and disappointments, a strong rock-like character hlessed with the blessing of the Lord and innortal with the immortality of God.

SHAFTS OF TRUTH

"Only be thou strong and very purageous."—Joshua 1, 7,

What are the qualities which go make up this wonderful courage? The question is an important one, Anyway, there must be—
A clear consciousness of the Di-

A clear consciousness of the Di-vine favor, an inward conviction of heing ready to live or ready to die. Doubts always signify weakness, and are the makers of feer; and doubting and fearing are alike fors to the daring, confident soirt of which we are speaking. Therefore, confidence about our rightness and security have much to desirable. security have much to do with courage for saving other people. Confidence in God-not not only in what He has said and done in the past for others, but in what He is saying and doing in the soul at the present time.

A determination to accomplish to purpose of the soul or to die in ne attempt.

After all, and ahove all, and over

After all, and shove all, and over all, there will be, and must be, in this courage the direct inspiration of the Holy Ghost.

If you want this courage you must seek it. Cry to God for it. Let Him possess you. Offer Him a heart without reservations; bid Him welcome to every corner of it, and it shall be with you as it was with Samson. When the Spirit of the Lord came upon him he routed the Philistines. With the Spirit of God within, you will be mighty. "Be filled with the Spirit."

Do you want this courage? It will

"Be filled with the Spirit,"
Do you want this courage? It will come by practice. Use what you have. You cannot perform one courageous deed without an increase of the desire and of the capacity for performing another. Habit comes of use, and habit masters all.
We do many things not because comes of use, and habit masters all. We do many things, not because we ought, but because we are accustomed to do them. So courage grows by the repetition of courageous deeds.

Persevere, my friend, in courageous deeds. Go to work. Use what courage you have. Begin this very day. Mever mind what you may feel at the ouest or how you may day. Never mind what you may seem to fail. Go on, and you will become a mighty man of valor. Courage and faith will make you more than a conqueror.

BEATEN:-TO FIGHT AGAIN

Here's to the men who lose! If triumph's easy smile our strag-gles greet.

Courage is casy then; king is he who, after fierce defeat,

Can up and fight again.

Here's to the men who lose The touchstone of true worth is no!

success. There is a higher test-Though fate may darkly frown, on-ward to press. And bravely do one's best.

Here's to the men who lose It is the vanquished's praises that

I sing,
And this is the toast I thoose! "A hard-fought-failure is a noble

Here's to the men who lose!"

A shortage of farm labor is orted from all parts of the finent. The wages offered in oldstries are attracting the plus labor and offers of from $50 per month and hoard are origing sufficient to get labor the farms. The situation fron accounts is more serious in United States than here, but our county here (says North Yearner), Meanwhile large num of men in the cities appear to idle or looking for work. Some of overly anxious to secure we idle or looking for work. Some not overly anxious to secure we especially farm work, while of generally anxious to secure emparent are not willing to accept mages and conditions incident employment on the farm. In Md Country farm hands are strike; in Ontario and the East water of figure to go on farm strike; in Ontario and the East number offering to go on farm less than for years; in the W the shortage is acute. What outcome will be is not difficult see. Farmers are not able, a the past season, to offer more t $40 to $45 per month, or at the a side $50. Men are not likely to had at these wages. The re had at these wages. The re will be decreased farm product

PEOPLE LIVING LONGE

The Health Commissioner of N The Health Commissioner of N York State says that six years been added to the life of the avage American since 1900, thanks solution and public health edu flom. He believes amother rars can be added to the natio fix expectancy during the n twenty years by similar measure. This refutes the assertion in by many that the stamina of peo on this continent is being sapp by the hurry and strain of mod life. Existence in a large city in be a constant assault on the nerv but the human constitution probably the same faculty of ad-tation to its environment that preserved the race—or some race through the ages. In no part the world so much as in No America has science come to me sid so freely in prolonging life ighting the causes of disease testing conditions conducive

AMENDING THE MARRIA

For many years in Canada as the Mother Country it has h lawful for a man to marry a tested wife's sister or niece, has not been lawful for a won to marry a deceased husband's b ther or nephew. And there I beth a decided division of opini along certain sections of mople as to whether either of the ions of marriages should be losted. the or nephew Parliament, however, has i ratiament, however, has a selled the question by very nea standard action. The sexes in this regard on an equal footing the law has been made consist adit is now lawful for a woman start her decorated baseband's her many her deceased husband's b the managed misonances of the management of the

To talk with God no breath is lost: talk on To walk with God no strength is lost; walk on.

To wait on God no time is lost; wait on,

SHAFTS OF TRUTH

'Only be thou strong and very arageous."-Joshua 1, 7.

What are the qualities which go make up this wonderful courage? ne question is an important one. nyway, there must beA clear consciousness of the Di-

A clear consciousness of the Di-nee favor, an inward conviction of ing ready to live or ready to die, bubts always signify weakness, d are the makers of fear: and subting and fearing are alike foes the daring, confident sojit of hich we are speaking. Therefore, infidence ahout our rightness and curity have much to do with cour-te for saving other people.

confidence in God—not only in hat He has said and done in the ast for others, but in what He is ying and doing in the soul at the esent time.

A determination to accomplish e purpose of the soul or to die in attempt.

After all, and above all, and over

After all, and above all, and over ll, there will be, and must be, in its contrage the direct inspiration f the Holy Chost.

If you want this courage you must seek it. Cry to God for it, et Him nossess you. Offer Him a eart without reservations; bid him welcome to every corner of, and it shall be with you as it was ith Samson. When the Spirit of all Lord came upon him he routed he Philistiens. With the Spirit of Jod within, you will be mighty. Be filled with the Spirit of Jod within, you will be mighty. Do you want this courage? It will

Be filled with the Spirit."

Do you want this courage? It will onne by practice. Use what you have. You cannot perform one ourageous deed without an inrease of the desire and of the cap-city for performing another. Habit omes of use, and habit masters all. omes of use, and habit masters all. We do many things, not because we ought, but because we are coustomed to do them. So ourage grows by the repetition of ourageous deeds.

Persevere, my friend, in courageous deeds, Go to work. Use what ourage you have. Begin this very lay. Never mind what you may lead at the outset or how you may lead at the outset, or how you may lead at the outset, or how you may college you may lay. Mever mind what you may be at the onset, or how you may seem to fail. Go on, and you will secome a mighty man of valor. Courage and faith will make you nore than a conqueror.

BEATEN∴TO FIGHT AGAIN

Here's to the men who lose! If triumph's casy smile our struggles greet.
Courage is easy then:

The king defeat, king is lic who, after fleres

Can up and fight again. Here's to the men who lose!

The touchstone of true worth is not виссевв.

auccess.
There is a higher test—
Though Tate may darkly frown, onward to press,
And bravely do one's best.

Here's to the men who lose!

It is the vanquished's praises that a sing,
And this is the toast I chooser "A hard-fought-fallure is a noble thing; Here's to the men who lose!"

WHAT'S DOING ROUND THE WORLD

FARM LABOR SCARCE

A shortage of farm labor is reed from all parts of the con-nt. The wages offered in other inent. The wages offered in other industries are attracting the surplus labor and offers of from $40 to $30 per month and board are not proving sufficient to get labor for the farms. The situation from all accounts is more serious in the United States than here, but serious enough here (says North West Farmer). Meanwhile large numbers of men in the cities appear to be idle or looking for work. Some are not overly anxions to secure work, especially farm work, while others generally anxious to secure employespecially farm work, while others generally auxious to secure employ-ment are not willing to accept the wages and conditions incident to wages and conditions incident to employment on the farm. In the Old Country farm hands are on sirke; in Ontario and the East the number offering to go on farms is less than for years; in the West the shortage is acute. What the outcome will be is not difficult to outcome will be is not difficult to see. Farmers are not able, after the past season, to offer more than some offer month, or at the out. side $50. Men are not likely to be had at these wages. The result will be decreased farm production.

PEOPLE LIVING LONGER

The Health Commissioner of New The Health Commissioner of New York State says that six years have been added to the life of the aver-age American since 1900, thanks to suntation and public health educasantation and pumble heartif cudar-tion. He believes amother five tars can be added to the national life expectancy during the next actity years by similar measures. This refutes the assertion made by many that the stamina of people on this continent is being sapped by the hurry and strain of modern life. Existence in a large city may be a constant assault on the nerves, but the human constitution has probably the same faculty of adapation to its environment that has preserved the race—or some races— through the ages. In no part of the world so much as in North America has science come to man's aid so freely in prolonging life by fighting the causes of disease and creating conditions conducive to

AMENDING THE MARRIAGE

For many years in Canada as in the Mother Country it has been harful for a man to marry a deteated which sister or niece, but it has not been lawful for a woman to marry a deceased husband's brother or nephew. And there has been a decided division of opinion among certain sections of the topic as to whether either of these softs of marriages should be affected.

Parliament, however, has just stilled the question by very nearly manimum action. The sexes are in this regard on an equal footing. The law has been made consistent addit is now lawful for a woman to large law has been made consistent. and it show haveful for a woman wanty her deceased husband's brother or nephew. It is understood also that this measure retroactively kellers such marriages, many of which have been contracted in retenuous long series of events of eco-nomic and social changes and of discoveries in the medical and scientific world have recently and scientific world have recently brought the civilized nations of the world face to face with a new opportunity which a number of them have not been slow to scize (says a writer in "Social Welfare"). This is the opportunity of conserving mother and child life. Among the seventeen countries of Europe which have enacted legislation for the special protection of motherhood are to be found peoples differing as widely from each other in language and traditions as Norway and Roumania, France and Serbia, language and traditions as Norway and Roumania, France and Serbia, Germany and Italy, Australia, New Zealand, and the United States may also be added to the list Legislation adopted, these countries covers, in the mass, quite a number of widely varying schemes, But in each country the fundamental need is the same; it is the need of every family,—a mother who can be with her children until they reach maturity and ther who can be with her children until they reach maturity, and healthy children who will live to strong manhood and womanhood. It was with the realization that these two needs must be satisfied that the International Labor Constitution works the protection of that the International Labor Con-vention made the protection of women before and after childbirth the subject of a Draft Convention at Washington. In the case of Canada it has been decided that the matters discussed in this Draft Convention lie within the juris-diction of the Provincial Govern-ments, but up to the present date British Columbia is the only Province which has adopted legislation in accordance with it, and even the British Columbia statute is only a partial fulfilment of the terms of the Draft Convention. It makes the Draft Convention. It makes compulsory a proper rest period for women engaged in industrial and commercial undertakings, but provides no medical or nursing care, and arranges for no special financial assistance.

THE CANADIAN MOTHER

It is natural, perhaps, that Canada chould be clause to adopt the

It is natural, perhaps, that Canada should be slower to adopt this Draft Convention than other countries have been, since our social and industrial conditions differ somewhat from those widely obtaining in Europe. It is, however, scarcely to our credit that the Draft Convention has not even been discussed as it should have been in the majority of our Provincial Legislatures. That the need of Canadian motherhood for more rest, more medical care, more household assistance is urgent no one who has knowledge of our homes can deny. It is a need homes can deny. It is a need which weighs heavily on our seat-tered rural communities from coast to coast and from our southern-most peninsular to the little isolated outposts on the Mackenzie and the Yukon.

Our public health nurses could give innumerable instances of cases made distressing by lack of care, lack of education among both men and women, lack of proper medical care, or even of simple domestic assistance. It is impossible for us assistance. It is impossible for its from now on to shrug our shoulders and say, "Oh well, such things can(Continued at foot of column 4)

A PREACHING TEST

Under the title of "Preaching the Under the title of "Preaching the Test of a Christian" the current issue of "China's Millions," the organ of the China Inland Mission, quotes the following story from one of their missionaries resident in the area at present infested with ban-area at present infested with bandits:

"China is still very disturbed. Though Chefoo itself is quiet, yet the country round is full of bandits. In a city not very far from here, the Chinese boys from the mission school were going home for the holidays when a group of them were captured by bandits.
"The boys told them they were were captured by bandits.

"The boys told them they were from a mission sehool. At first they were not believed, then the handits said: "Well, all Christians can preach. You preach to us!"

"This the boys did, evidently very well, for the bandits said, "Yes, you preach just like the Christians. They took them for a little distance, blindfolded them so that they could give no information, then led them on to another village and set them free."

A WIRELESS RACE WITH DEATH

In a London, England, hospital a patient lay dying, and the authorities, having tried unsuccessfully every ordinary avenue by means of which to get into touch with his mother, who was living at Flitwick. Bedfordshire, requested that a summons be broadcasted on the wireless service, and they asked that an appeal should be made in-viting co-operation from listeners-thing co-operation from histonersin.

This was immediately done, with the result that even while neighhors who had receiving sets were imparting the sad news to the distracted mother a man, living in Bedford, eight miles away, who had heard the call, arrived at the house in his motor-car, in which he took the mother to Luton, where she eaught a train for London. She earrived at the hospital in time to be with her son for some hours before he passed away.

For the passed away.

So generous was the response to broadcasted appeal that no fewer than thirty motor-cars were placed at the mother's disposal.

DAILY NEWSPAPER AT SEA

Marking a new and unique step forward in American journalism, the Chicago "Tribune" and New York "Daily News" have launched a new enterprise-an oceanic edi-tion of a daily newspaper for each and or a daily newspaper for each and every passenger vessel of the United States and Europe, The President Roosevelt was the first ship furnished with this daily newspaper service.

not be avoided in a young country." For the spirit of the times has led For the spirit of the times has led Canadians as well as the people of other countries to see that the duty of conserving mother and infant life is laid on every nation. In fact it is needed in a young nation even more urgently than by the older ones; and any nation which shirks this duty must suffer loss of virility and vigor as punishment for its negligence.

"GIVE ME LIBERTY!-AND I'LL GIVE YOU DEATH!"

Will visit

PARIS, ONT. SUNDAY, JUNE 10th.

MUSICAL MEETING OTTAWA I. BAND and SONGSTERS

OTTAWA II. CITADEL On MONDAY. June 4th, at 8 p.m.

BRANTFORD SONGSTERS WHY THE CONCERTINA IS KING

By Brigadier J. N. Parker

HE Salvation Army uses three kinds of concertions kinds of concertinas, all of which are very useful. Some Officers, for different reasons, prefer one kind and others another.

The Anglo-German chromatic has different notes when pushing and pulling on the bellows. There are the

1. It is a recognized classical musi, it is a tecognized cassecar mas-ical instrument, and capable of inter-preting the most exquisite harmony that has or can be written within the compass of the instrument.

2. It is constructed upon the mus-ical clef and is easy to learn as a, b, e, and it can be learned in degrees, a

"STAND TO ARMS"

The following letter, which appears in the British "Bandsma, Local Officer and Songster" under the above title, is of such inportance that we think it will be red with interest and advanage by many Salvationists in Canada Eat.
"Dear Editor—I have been much disturbed of late to find that may Bands up and down the construction."

Bands up and down the country have adopted the practice of re-

June 9th, 1923

HOUSEHOLD HIN

To Freshen Fish Very salt fish or meat freshened by soaking in sour

Roiled Ham and Corned Leave ham and corned the water in which they has boiled until quite cold an will have a much better flav

Spilled Oil

H oil has been spilled e with flour at once and in hours it will soak up into th

Shredding Peel
Candied peel can be shredmore quickly with scissors with a knife.

To Prevent Sticking An old cook gives this met neventing bread and cake sicking.

She first rubs the inside tin thoroughly with salt, the puts a layer of salt one incline the bottom of the tin, and the utensil in a hot oven and it for one hour. If the o only moderately hot she leave the in the oven for three o

She treats all new tins they are used, but old ones prepared in the same way, using.

USEFUL RECIPES

Yorkshire Pudding

Best 2 eggs very light, the Both 2 eggs very light, the and yolks separately. Stir then I cup of flour sifted w teaspoon of salt, and add n make a batter about the thi of double heavy cream, year beef roasting in a larg About a bail-hour before the is done, pour the batter in fat, close the oven, and lea ment and pudding to cook to for a half-hour. When don the pudding in squares and around the meat and gravy.

Spider Corn Cake
Put 1/2 cup of cornment cup, then add floor 10 fill th Put into the sitter, add 1/2 ter each of soda and salt and 4 spons sugar. Sift into a dd 1 sgs beaten light, an each of side corn milk and mik Sir well. McH 2 table:
fat is a suiter or gravality mak Sirwell. Melt 2 tables in in a spider or granite 1 tom in the mixture. Pour milk even the top and bake w stining n in. Serve cut as 1

Roast Pork

Roast Pork
It is not necessary to t whole rolet of pork, if the is sail. Use pork chops in Sack then in a neat solid | has a prinche with sail, I have and powdered sage, poulike Water, couver and roa have the remove the cove have solved about the chop have cook them.

Ridgetown Corps Cadet Brigade, with Captain and Mrs. Brewer. From left to right—Corps Cadets V. Downing, E. Emlau, S. Littlejohn, M. Hodnolf, E. Down, E. Buller and L. Down, with the Corps Officers in the centre. The Brigade is a great asset to the Corps with their instrument a well as other activities

COMMISSIONER SOWTON

Will preside at A UNITED MUSICAL FESTIVAL
By the DOVERCOURT, RIVERDALE and TEMPLE BANDS

THE TEMPLE On TUESDAY, June 5

MUSICAL MEETING METHODIST CHURCH HESPELER

On MONDAY, June 11th, by Com-mandant and Mrs. Urquhart

LONDON I. BAND STRATHROY

Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17 MUSICAL PROGRAMME

BYNG AVENUE JUNE 21st, at 8 p.m. — BY —

RHODES AVENUE BAND

HAMILTON II. BAND

WELLAND

Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17. sons:

maliogany tops with from twenty to managany tops with from twenty to thirty keys, and nickel tops with from thirty two to forty keys, all seed work. These can be had in A flat, C or H flat. These have from the bone-figured to the silver-tipped keys. There are quite a number of these in this country. this country this country. The Unglish chromatic is in six grades, all forty-eight keys, all tuned to concert pitch, and they have a compass of $5.88 or cases, from G below to C above. This is said to be constant of the easier learned than the others. It has steel reeds, and the keys are hone-figured, white metal and silver-tipped, with morocco bellows.

The Triumph chromatic duet has from forty-eight to fifty-five keys and from forty-eight to fifty-five keys and steel reds. It is a new kind of co-certina, with the Anglo-German wrist-straps, same keys where bellows is drawn in or out, and full chromatic scale on both sides in the fifty-five-keyed one. Its compass is from tenor C to F above, and it has key, from bone-figured to white most, with from six to sevenfold.

As expect on concertings at Inter-tation I Hendquarters says that if a English concerting is strongly to accommended for the following reas-beginner playing but one or two notes and gradually adding to his harmony as he masters the same.

as in master brigade leaders will not allow the Anglo-tierman to be played while a brigade is singing, but they welcome the English and it saves takwelcome the English and it saves tak-ing an organ to the open-airs.

4. The English is made in different "families"—the piecolo, the treble, the teror, the barrione, the bass and double bass—every one of which has the same fingering, and baving learn-ed one, he can pick up any other and olay it. play it.

In buying a concerting you must get steel reeds; the pitch must be phil-harmonic, the bellows must be air-tight and have at least five-fold. Do not get a cheap instrument, and have decent case.

Each of the following points in-Each of the following points in-creases its value; silver studs; con-dition and folds of the bellows; if the ends are "domed"; if the word is undrogany, tosewood or cloony; if the case is square or octagonal, wood or leather; the tone, both in volume and anality; its general appearance.

One or two Salvation Army Bandsmen wanted; work can be found for suitable men. Apply Ensign Cham-bers, Dox 193, Hespeler, Ont.

maining seated while playing for the opening song both at Meetings and Festivals. Is there any legit-mate reason for this? Surely we have as much right to stand for the have as much rich; to stand for the opening song at we have to kneel for the opening brayers. Perhaps the excuse of lack of sufficient room will be frought forward. Well, all I can say is that the Rink Bands-by no means a small Combination—frequently finds itself in congested circums was a regards platform accounts late in in competition with his brawle congested. tion with its 'as we engagement, but never so congested that it is prevented from rising to play the accompaniment on the opening song. Personally I feel—and led strongly—that whatever the circumstance of the property of the companion of the co stances, we should rise, for in my humble opinion the act in itself is one of worship and realise to God and an acknowle froment of His goodness to us H. W. Twipling, Reger Holl

WANTED

Salvation Army Bandsman wasted Work can be found for a papable Machinist at good wages. Write Cartain Brewer, Box 362. Ridgetows, Onl.

NGSTERS.

nteres, a

"STAND TO ARMS"

The following letter, which appears in the British "Bandsman, Local Officer and Songster" under the above title, is of such inport. ance that we think it will be read with interest and advantage by many Salvationists in Canada East.

"Dear Editor,—I have been much disturbed of late to find that many Bands up and down the have adopted the practice of revning, E. Emiau, S. Littlejohn, M. Hodnott, the Corps with their instruments 22

monv

ill not layed they s tak-

ferent

h has r and must air-od is if the od or e and ands.

Do s incon-if the maining scated while playing for the opening song both at Meetings and Festivals. Is there any legit-mate reason for this? Surely we have us much right to stand for the have as much right to stand for the opening song as we have to keel for the opening prayers. Perhapt the excuse of lack of sufficient room will be brought forward. Well, all I can say is that the Rult Band—by no means a small Combination—frequently finds itself in conversated circumstances as results. congested circumstances as regards eongested circumstances as regards platform accommodation in connection with its 'away' engagements, but never so congested that it is prevented from rising to play the accompaniment to the opening song. Personally I feel—and feel song. Personally I tecl-and gastrongly—that whatever the circumstances, we should rise, for in my humble opinion, the act in itself is one of worship and praise to fed and an acknowledgement of the goodness.

goodness to us."
H. W. Twitchin, Regent Hall

WANTED

Salvation Army Bandsman sanité. Work can be found for a spalé Machinist at good wages. Write für tain Brewer, Box 382, Ridgetowis ün.

VOMAN'S PAGE 9

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To Freshen Fish

Very salt fish or meat can be freshened by soaking in sour milk.

Boiled Ham and Corned Beef Leave ham and corned beef in the water in which they have heen boiled until quite cold and they will have a much better flavor.

Spilled Oil

If oil has been spilled cover it with flour at once and in a few hours it will soak up into the flour.

Shredding Peel
Candied peel can be shredded far usere quickly with scissors than with a knife.

To Prevent Sticking

An old cook gives this method of preventing bread and cake from sticking. She first rubs the inside of the in thoroughly with salt, then she puts a layer of salt one inch thick in the bottom of the tin, and places in the ootion of the this, and places the utensil in a hot oven and bakes it for one hour. If the oven is only moderately hot she leaves the im in the oven for three or four

She treats all new tins before they are used, but old ones may be measured in the same way. The prepared in the same way. The tins are greased as usual before

USEFUL RECIPES

Yorkshire Pudding
Beat 2 eggs very light, the whites und yalks separately. Stir into them I cup of flour sifted with 1/2
tespoon of salt, and add milk to respon or sait, and add min to make a batter about the thickness of double heavy eream. Have your beef roasting in a large pan. About a half-hour before the meat is done, pour the batter into the ht, close the oven, and leave the meat and pudding to cook together for a half-hour. When done, cut the pudding in squares and serve awand the meat and gravy.

Pal % cup of cornmeal into a cup, then add flour to fill the cup. Pat into the Sifter, add ½ teaspoon the forest and salt and 4 tablesea of soa and sait and 4 tablefloor star. Sife into a bowl.

Add I sag beaten light, and 1/2 each d litck sour milk and sweet all. Sit well. Melt 2 tablespoons to ha spider or granite piepan, tanes he mixture. Pour 1/2 cmp mik or the top and bake without earing a in. Serve cut as pie.

Roast Pork

Roast Pork

It is not necessary to bake a voloriest of pork, if the family is still Use pork chops instead.

Sale Use, in a neat solid pile in Lain, prinkle with salt, pepper, for all powdered sage, pour in a still cover and roast an time remove the cover and is time. Serve with balls of time Serve with balls of time took them. to cook them.

त्रामात्रामात्राक्षात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्रामात्राम् FLOWERS OF THE HEART

BY MRS. GENERAL BOOTH

O a wonderful extent every luminan being is ever a forecast of what he will become. This is, of course, especially true of our young people, but in a wider sense it applies to every one of ns.

Just as surely as this mortal life is given us in order that we may prepare for an eternity of glorious happare for an etermy of goronis nap-piness, or one of bitterest woe, so surely also shall we reap the charac-ter we have sown; we shall become the men and women we have made ourselves—good and noble if, in the building of character, we have worked with God, cvil if we have excluded the Divine Master-worker from our True success in life is therefore True success in life is therefore only to be measured by success in the formation of pure and strong and noble character. And when fathers and mothers fail in this respect, no other success that they may achieve is of the slightest permanent value. Character is, inits importance to our lives, like the roots to a tree, or the foundation, the allower of the foundation of the success of the succe foundations to a house.

foundations to a honse.

We cannot become too deeply impressed with the realization of our individual responsibility for the formation of our own characters. God has done great things for us, but He requires each of us to work upon himself and herself in the cultivation of the capacities with which IIe has endowed us for becoming like Himself. Some of our responsibilities we may manage to evade, but we can never run away from this one. We may naminge to evante, but we can never run away from this one. We may neglect it; we may fail to realise to the full its highest importance; but to the full its highest importance; but we must carry with us all the time this sense of our accountability to God, seeing that every motive that impels us, every thought that passes through our minds, every word we speak, and every action we perform —all contribute to the building of our characters. Just as really as the stones which the mason places one upon the other go to make the wall, so, day by day, and hour by hour, we are building our characters. How much better it would be for the world if men and women, and especially young people, would truly learn this lesson!

Real greatness, it has been said, has nothing to do with the sphere in which we live. We are sometimes tempted to think otherwise, and to suppose to think otherwise, and to suppose that our opportunities depend upon our circumstances; but that is a mistake. True greatness has nothing to do with that which is outside us, but everything to do with what we are in

What an influence a sense of responsibility may exert upon people! A remarkable example of this was brought to my notice a few years ago in the Women's Social Work. A poor woman, who for years had been a terrible drunkard, was truly saved, a retrime Grimkard, was trilly saved, and because very anxious to do her best for God, as well as to improve her circumstances. But her life of drunkenness had left its eruel mark upon her. Especially had her memory suffered, and we had to keep her in the Home a long time. Especially in the Home a long time. Eventually she was sent out to a situation, but she soon came back, her mistress saying she had no memory at all.

She was afterwards tried in another situation, but again failed, and it seemed as though we should have to send her to the workhouse. The Of-ficer of the Home, however, took her aside, and kindly, but firmly, said. You must now earn your own living Ve have done all we can for you and can only give you another week here. If you don't improve in that time we shall have to send you away." At the close of the week a marked improvement had taken place in her, and she was soon earning her own livelihood. It was the sense of responsibility that helped so much.

(To be continued)

THE DUTY OF HOUSE-WORK

How Our Saviour Views It

Christ's obvious sympathy with household tasks is one of the most striking features and humanizing influences in the Gospel story. He not infrequently compares Himself to the master of a house, doing just what many another master is doing, hiring extra gardeners for the vineyard because it is a special time of pressure, urging his family to vineyard because it is a special time of pressure, urging his family to take their due share in the work of the estate, watching over the welfare of the crops and seeing them grow, planning hospitality and sending out invitations for a feast, tooking up the house at night and refusing admission to suspicious characters because they come after hours, keeping guard against burglars, dismissing unworthy seevants and rewarding satisfactory servants. He speaks of the housemother sweeping out the rooms, and making bread; and He is not so unworldly as not to have an eye for exact quantities.

He also remembers details that exact quantities.

He also remembers details that count, the measurement of the flour, the insertion of the leaven, for good bread-making is an important thing in any bouse. He speaks of the widow going to the magistrate for advice in settling the estate after her lunshand's death. And He alludes to the affairs of earth as naturally as He talks of the things of Heaven; the corn grinding, and the drawing of water, the tearing of the elothes on the numerous brambles, the patching of the torn raiment from the remnants of other garments, and the temptation to use a newly woven piece for the sake of durability. The going out to market and the importance of getting good measure.

IF YOUR GIRL 'SLACKS'

Her This Little Article and Help Her to Follow Its Suggestions

The slacker is generally a very charming person and quite a pleasant companion. She is impulsive and wayward, but often goodnatured and lovable. Yet what an appalling unisance she can he at times. She is the person who borrows books, fully intending to return them—but she forgets to do so. She forgets to reply to the letter you write asking a most important question. She meant to write, but kept "putting it offl."

She is usually very unprinctual and carcless about appointments. She has a fund of lucid explanations of the whys and wherefores of her failures to meet friendly obligations. The exenses are always profuse, failures to meet friendly obligations. The excuses are always profuse, and she delivers them with ingenuous sincerity.

In reality she is, of course, sincere in her intentions, and if kindhearted will undertake in impulsive moments to do the things which only her habitual sluckness will prevent her from carrying through.

All of this is simply because she is carcless of other folk's convenience. She may not be innately selected.

is carcless of other folks conveni-ence. She may not be innately sel-fish, but she is just thoughtless. But to her friends she is a great misance, and those who do n know her good points will conside her disgracefully selfish and inco-siderate. siderate

What can be done to remedy this state of things. She needs "tuning-np," When she slacks she must be np." When she slacks she must he told gently, but firmly, that she must mend her ways—and excuses for transgressions must be absolutely disregarded. She must be shown that social obligations form a large part of life and friendship, and that she fails as a friend and as a citizen if she disregards the improvement of them.

and that she fails as a friend and as a citizen if she disregards the importance of them.

It is well also to let her know that the little peccadillo she terms "slackness" causes grave annoyance and pain to others. Above all, she must remember that good intentions are worse than useless unless controlled affect is made to tions are worse than uscless unless every possible effort is made to fulfil them. Also, let her know that all her friends eonsider her unreliable, because, with all her stock of good points, they cannot depend on her, since she is so slack.

Then bid her seek hourly help from God, watching every tendency, by His grace, and, in time, the victory will be assured. But it will mean a long and strong pull, with all her mind on the problem and all her trust in God.

SEE THE SUNNY SIDE

Look always on the sunny side, 'Twill make you happier far; Why should you try to find the cloud When brightly shines the star?

Some people only see the world As through a smoky glass; They go halfway to meet the woe sunshine pass.

June 9th, 1923

Those who read the interview which he General gave the British "War the General gave the British "War Cry" upon his return from India, and Cry inpon his return from India, and which was republished in our eol-umns, will perhaps recall how deeply he was impressed by his visits to our Criminal Tribes' Settlements. Here he saw for himself hundreds of men he saw for himself hundreds of men and women who, through the instru-mentality of the Army, had been re-claimed from lives of crime and deg-radation, and are now honest and in-dustrions. What struck him still more was the way in which the children are being taken hold of and taught and trained for useful, God-honorfing careers.

It is interesting to note that an American, Mr. Lowell Thomas, dur-American, Mr. Lowell Thomas, during his two years in India, also paid a visit to an Army Criminal Settlement, and that in his highly instructive lecture on India, which he has been giving in London, he bears tribute to the good work which is heing accomplished. "The Salvation Army," says Mr. Thomas, "are the only people who are doing anything for this parwho are doing anything for this par-ticular section of India's outcast popu-lations," and he regards its success among the children as nothing short

WORD-PICTURES

The attempts of new converts to express themselves when explaining the change that has-occurred in their lives are often full of unconscious humor. Often enough comrades state the facts just as they appear without any attempt at polishing or satisfable terms! How raphic are the words of the man hor recently said: "I heard a man labing a rocker in the street and haking a noise in the street, and when I went to look I found he was preaching about God and the Bible. Now I study the Bible every day!" Now I study the Bible every day! His picture is as complete as that drawn by a South African comrade who writes: "Self-Denial is going all right. Last week I went collect-ing and almost got drowned in the river. The people were very nice and I broke my Target." Only strangers to Army phraseology could be pardoned for visualizing a erowd of shining natives hauling a poor half-drowned Salvationist from the river and industriously diving into its depths until his damaged "Target" was safely rescued!

HERE COME

THE RIGHTWAYS

CAMEOS OF JAPANESE SALVATIONISM

A CHANGE THAT LASTED

VER twenty years ago a handful of Salvationists were holding an open-air in Tokyo when one of the men from a nearby house came out with his little baby girl on his back. He listened most attentively, and some message then delivered went to his heart with the result that a few days ater he made his way to the Hall and got saved, being followed after a short interval of time by aiter a short interval of time by his wife and family.

It is a principle of Salvation Army wariare that converts he urged to testify of the goodness of God to them, and in his first testimony the subject of this sketch said he and his wife had been very nnhappy together, quarrelling vio-lently as often as once or twice a week, so that it will readily be seen week, so that it will readily be seen that in the intervals between the storms the atmosphere, to say the least, must have been very electrical. In these outlursts the furniture often came to grief, and it was with glistening eyes and happy heart that the young convert was able to say. "Christ has taken out my temper, and there is now harmony in my loome."

Though not an educated man he Though not an educated man he began to earnestly read his Bible. Colonel Yamamuro, who was the Corps Officer when this man got saved, has watched his life carefully and bears witness to the practical and sincere expression of Salvation revealed. The Colonel says, "I always liked to hear him testify because every time he had some thought to pass on," and it is from this close observer of our comrade's life that we have been fortunate life that we have been fortunate enough to secure the following specimen facts of this diamond. specinen facts of this quamond, which though originally very much in the rough was, in the course of years, beautifully polished by the Hand of the Master Jeweller:— "Since Christ saved me my life has been changed—now I wake with God, walk and work with God and go to sleave with God. Before and go to sleep with God. Before conversion, when I was awakened by the chattering of the birds or the by the chattering of the birds or the shorting and bustle of the early morning tradesmen I still lazily re-mained in bed and felt annoyed by the disturbance of my rest; now I am grateful that God has given me another day to spend in His service, and I get up quickly and pray to Him for grace and strength.

"Insed to do my work (zori-making) so that it looked nice, but now I make every endeavor to ensure utility and service to my customers, for though they may possibly not notice the shoddiness of my work, I know God knows. Then, also, in days gone by I used to waste my evenings by chattering useless talk, finding somebody else's faults, reading doubtful novels, but now, when I am able to finish my work, I either go to the meeting or, in preparation for an early start in the morning, quickly retire, after having committed myself into the Hands of Him Who has done so much for me."

Hands of Him Who has done so much for me."

On another occasion, again referring to the change in his business outlook, he said:—
"When I sold my handiwork at my street stand I used to think that my street stand I used to think that seeing there were over a million people in Tokyo it was not likely that those who buy from me will come this way again, so I sold roughly made stuff for the highest obtainable price. In this way I made a reputation for unfair dealing, and on several occasions the ing, and on several occasions the irate purchasers returned, and in no uncertain way manifested their dis-gust and annoyance at my trickery. Now I sell well-made zori for a Now I sell well-made zori for a reasonable price, and in the most polite manner possible. Because of this, even though, having my shop also to look after. I am unable to be at the stand every night, I am often asked by intending purchasers, whether I was the man who ers, whether I was the man who sold zori at that place on a certain date, and when I answer in the affirmative they reply "I have told my friend about the good quality of your work, and he asked me to get him a pair of zori too, so I work they pairs to gith please".

get nim a pair of zori too, so I want two pairs to-night please."
Lastly, as illustrating how being converted made this one-time eviltempered and selfish man into a considerate watcher of the confort and interest or others, we give this (Cantinued on next column)

OUR SMALL WORLD

The Internationalism of the Salvation Army has done much to make the world a smaller place to hundreds and thousands of people. An evidence of this fact is seen in An evidence of this fact is seen in one night's experience of a woman Officer in the West End of London. Officer in the West End of London. She was standing in one of the fashiouable thoroughfares when a gentleman approached her and started to talk of the Army's wok. "Do you know," he said, "I was quite ignorant of your anazing 0rganization until quite lately, when I met with it in Kenya, and heard from the lips of a splendid man there—Major Peat—of the remakable progress which is helically and the progress when the progress which is the progress that the progress when the progr able progress which is being made by the Army throughout the world." Another gentleman who had been unintentionally eavesdropping also spoke to the Officer. "You must excuse me." he said, "but I heard you talking of the Army's work abroad, and I thought I'd like to tell you of what I know concerning its operations in Sweden." Going home on the top of a bus a few hours afterwards the Officer was who said, "Whenever I see a Sa vationist I feel I must talk, Yo will be interested to know that my little girl corresponds with Major Peat's little boy in British East Africa."

human little incident:-

human little incident:—
One day, when wearing Japanese geta, he accidently, on entering a tram, trod on the foot of a fellow-passenger. Of course our subjet was very sorry, and there and then determined that, unless the state of the roads absolutely made it in-possible, he would always wear zori, as in that case, though others might trend on his feet he would not again hurt anybody else.

Owing to his converty and the sos-

Owing to his poverty and the possession of a large family, this comrade had often to spend nights as well as days in working, but this notwithstanding, he promised that at least two evenings a week should be devoted to the work of God, one to the attendance at a Meeting and the other to the visitation of his comrades, and for nearly 23 years comrades, and for nearly 25 years Sergeant Nishio did valiant service as a Visiting Sergeant, having hen one of the first Local Officers to be two years ago and the fineral was conducted by Colonel Yamamuro.

commissioned in Japan.

He was promoted to Glory about

Next week the Rightway Family will show us how to manage things better

The Mis-Doings of the Wrongway Family

THEY WANT TO TAKE US WILL YOU GO TO THE MEETING WITH US ? TO THE ARMY ! 5 WHAT DO THEY THINK WE ARE?

People who ride such a very high horse, cannot see when they are on a wrong course.

GOLD RIN

For a married woman Matron to find her employ new idea altogether. Plent came out of the bustle of into her quiet room; in brought a variation of the story, but until now, non with the word "husband"

"I'm afraid this isn't employment bureau," said with a little note of end with a little note of care voice, for her time was "But I want you to hel sisted the married won name was Jocelyn. "I'n mother F mother !"

The Matron's hand withdrawn from the bell-desk.

"Tell me everything!"
There was not much to that Jocelyn's mother love than honor and, having ing hospitality to the daughter, whose coming plans, she now expected, that the girl's fair cheeks eyes should take the pla faded beauty on the str sailor saw her one day, as her, stood between pursu Then he went t locelyn again feared the her mother knew.

You shall come here! Matron in her decisive wa lyn's ringed finger cam amongst those other havoc can a little band of What anguished sohs fr hearts! If only each had gold ring! The weeks p gott ring: I ne weeks pethe postman brought to news of the giver of her has an evil tongue and li-barbs were aimed to ran heart. "She wears a li-never writes. Is there a

The Matron was at 1: and she, urged on by the ledge that Tocelyn's stay would have to be prolong the man's ship. When would have to be proton; the man's ship. When mail came io, bringing a Matron's heart sank in s ation of the fact that he was hideously true. She girl.

Sitting upright in her eyes suddenly chilled pools of pain, locelyn ring on her finger. Wit ing sob she slipped the her hand and pushed i Matron's desk.

He stood in the dock told his story, and the people who had hearts black coats, spoke word tion for the girl who l to say against the given which she had no right tence for bigamy. the law demanded convic

And here the story e with Jocelyn crooning o It is not the usual type of but who can say what happened to locelyn had kiven a welcome at the Her position would hav thinkable! But the Arr and so she is in safety a little song mon her li praise to the Redeemer a despairing when t

OUR SMALL WORLD

The Internationalism of the Salation Army has done much to take the world a smaller place to undreds and thousands of people, in evidence of this fact is seen in ne night's experience of a woman officer in the West End of London, he was standing in one of the ishionable thoroughfares when a ushionalile thoroughtares when a contleman approached her and tarted to talk of the Army's work. Do you know," he said, "I was uite ignorant of your amazing Oranization until quite lately, when met with it in Kenya, and heard rom the lips of a splendid man here—Major Peat—of the remark-ble progress which is being made the Army throughout the world," nother gentleman who had been another gentienian who had been inintentionally eavesdropping also poke to the Officer. "You must xcuse me." he said, "hut I heard ou talking of the Army's work broad, and I thought I'd like to ell you of what I know concerning a constitution in Sweden!" General so operations in Sweden." Going tome on the top of a bus a few ours afterwards the Officer was apped on the shoulder by a man who said, "Whenever I see a Salationist I feel I must talk. You will be jurcested to how the town. ationist I feel I must talk. You will be interested to know that my title girl corresponds with Major Peat's little boy in British East Africa."

uman little incident:— One day, when wearing Japanese eta, he accidently, on entering a ram, trod on the foot of a fellow-assenger. Of course our subject ras very sorry, and there and then etermined that, unless the state of ne roads absolutely made it im-ossible, he would always wear ori, as in that case, though others right tread on his feet he would of again furt anybody else.

Owing to his poverty and the pos-ession of a large family, this con-ade had often to spend nights as rell as days in working, but, this otwithstanding, he promised that t least two evenings a week should e devoted to the work of God, one o the attendance at a Meeting and he other to the visitation of his burrades, and for nearly 23 years omrades, and for nearly ergeant Nishio did valiant service s a Visiting Sergeant, having heen ne of the first Local Officers to be ommissioned in Japan.

He was promoted to Glory about vo years ago and the funeral was producted by Colonel Yamamuro.

t week the Rightway Family will w us how to manage things better.

JOCELYN: AND A PLAIN GOLD RING

For a married woman to ask the Matron to find her employment was a new idea altogether. Plenty of women came out of the bustle of the streets came out of the busine of the streets into her quiet room; mostly they brought a variation of the same sad but until now, none had come with the word "husband" on her lips. "I'm afraid this isn't an ordinary employment bureau," said the Matron employment bureau, said the Marion voice, for her time was precious.

"But I want you to help me!" per-sisted the married woman, whose name was Jocelyn. "I'm afraid of er: ne Matron's hand was quickly withdrawn from the bell-push on her

esk. "Tell me everything!" she said. There was not much to say, except that Jocelyn's mother loved ease more than honor and, having given grudgthan nonor and, having given grouping hospitality to the inwelcome daughter, whose coming spoiled her plans, she now expected, in return, that the girl's fair cheeks and lustrous eyes should take the place of her faded beauty on the streets. But a sailor saw her one day, and, marrying her, stood between pursued and pur

Then he went to sea and locelyn again feared the men whom r mother knew.
"You shall come here!" said the Matron in her decisive way. So Joce-lyn's ringed finger came to work amongst those other undecorated hands in the Social Home. What havoc can a little band of gold create! What anguished sobs from envious If only each had got a plain gold ring! The weeks passed on and the postman brought to Jocelyn no news of the giver of her ring. Envy has an evil tongue and little poisoned barbs were aimed to rankle in her heart. "She wears a ring, but he never writes. Is there a 'he'!"

The Matron was at last consulted and she, urged on by the new know-ledge that Jocclyn's stay in the Home would have to be prolonged, wrote to the man's ship. When the foreign geu, w.c. the foreign renly the would have to be provinged, wrote to the man's ship. When the foreign mail came in, bringing a reply, the Matron's heart sank in sudden realization of the fact that her tiny dread was hideously true. She sent for the girl.

Sitting upright in her chair, her eyes suddenly chilled into sombre pools of pain. Jocelyn felt for the ning on her finger. With a shuddering sob she slipped the circlet from her hand and pushed it along the Matron's desk.

He stood in the dock one day and told his story, and the court-house people who had hearts heneath their back coats, spoke words of admiration for the girl who had no word to say against the giver of the ring which she had no right to wear. But the law demanded conviction and sentence for bigamy.

And here the story ends abruptly, ith Joselyn crooning over ber baby, is not the usual type of social story. but who can say what would have happened to Jocelyn had she not been given a welcome at the Army Home? Her position would have been unthinkable! But the Army intervened so she is in safety to-day, with little song upon her lips—a song of praise ta the Redeemer who gladdens the despairing when they turn to

WESTERN REVIEW

MRS. COMMISSIONER HODDER

Conducts Inspiring Mother's Day Services at Winnipeg III.—Rousing Rally of Salvationists in Support of Prohibition Legislation

FROM THE CANADA WEST "WAR GRY"

N Mother's Day an inspiring series of Meetings were led by Mrs. Commissioner Hodder at Vinnipeg III. She was assisted by Mrs. Commissioner Hodder at Winnipeg III. She was assisted by the Chief Secretary, the Field Secre-tary and the Training Principal. Mrs. Lieut-Colonel Phillips paid impressive tribute to mothers who impressive tribute to mothers who taught us our first little song, our first simple prayer, and started us on the way to Heaven. The solo by Captain Hodder, "Saviour, Thy dying love," followed well the remarks already made of the greatness of a mother's

Tribute to mother

Tribute to mother
Lieut.-Colonel Taylor, in paying tribute to his mother, said, "My mother is still living, for which I am thankful. One of the early day experience that I recall is the great impression made upon me by family prayer. My mother often sang a verse, "Teach me to live that I may dread the grave as little as I do my bed.' The words puzzled me, so one day I asked her what they 'meant. Mother explained to me how, when we are saved and what they 'meant. Mother explained to me how, when we are saved and right with God, we do not need to dread the grave, because only the mortal body is buried, while the real self goes Home to be with God."

Mrs. Hodder's lesson was interesting and profitable. She reminded us of what an important place water fills, covering as it does two-thirds of the earth's surface: also that it can be a earth's surface; also that it can be a very powerful servant or a very de-structive foe. So much depends upon the spring being clean. The welfare the spring being clean. The welfare of a city depends greatly upon the springs, from which it gets its water supply being pure and clean. Likewise, if we have our hearts cleansed from past and present evil, the whole-life will be right because the heart, from which springs all our actions, is clean and good in the sight of God. The Meeting closed with a season of

A pleasing service

A very pleasing service entitled, "Mother's Flower Garden," was given in the afternoon, Lient,-Colonel Morris in the afternoon, Lient-Colonel Morris gave out the opening song, which was followed with prayer by Lient-Col-onel Phillips, Ensign Cox then took charge. The platform was very pretty with the circle of flowers inside which stood a number of little girls; the Songsters being at the back, Each girlie carried a bunch of flowers and gave a recitation telling what traits of character her flowers represented. Innocence, purity, humility and many other virtues were brought out in the flower story which was interspersed with solos and items by the Songsters.

Mrs. Hodder gave a very interesting talk. The child was likened to the zoo, different parts of the body being compared to the variety of animals.

In the evening a good crowd was present and it was noticed that Mrs. Hodder's morning reminder that everyone should wear a flower, had taken effect. The platform looked pretty with the large words "Mother's Flower Garden" across the front and above them a variety of flowers tastefully agranged. fully arranged.

Ensign Cox paid a feeeling tribute to her mother. It was interesting to note that the Ensign's mother was a faithful Salvationist for thirty-five years, having been converted in a Meeting conducted by Commissioner Higgins when he was a Captain. Captain Hodder's solo, "Don't forget the prontise made to mother," helped to bring a thoughtful atmosphere upon the audience. Worthy praise was given to another good mother when Captain Houghton spoke. The Cap-Captain Houghton spoke. The Captain remarked that before she was even converted, her mother told her that she was praying for the time when her girl would surrender her life to God. It was timely advice recently received by the Captain from her mother, when she wrote, "If we trust God then we do not worry, and five worry then we do not trust."

Timely advice

Mrs. Holder spoke af Inchebed the

Mrs. Hodder spoke of Jochebed, the mother of Moses, as an ideal mother. She explained how hard it must have been for that mother to hide her bahy been for that mother to hide her bahy in the bulrushes, fearing that she might never see him again. But God had a place for Moses to fill, so He took care of the child. Timely advice was given to mothers to sow the good seed in their children's hearts if the seed in their children's hearts it the young are ever to become men and women worth while. The fact was brought out of the greatness of a mother's influence, affecting the child physically, morally and spiritually. At the close of the lesson all mothers in the second of the second of the second of the second of the lesson all mothers in the second of the second of

At the close of the lesson all mothers in the audience were asked to stand, and while heads were bowed Lieut-Colonel Morris prayed for God's special blessing upon them that they may have grace to bring their children up aright. During the prayer meeting, which was conducted by Lieut-Colonel Taylor, four seekers knelt at the mercy seat.

Winnipeg Salvationists recently gathered in good numbers in the No. I. Citadel to listen to an address by Rev. Leslie Pidgeon, the ardent Prohibitionist Churchivan of Winnipeg. Lieut.-Colone Morris brefly addressed the gathering declaring the Army's unalterable purpose to light John Barleycom to the last ditch.

Salvationists on duty

Salvationists on duty
He said in part: "Although the Salvation Army never interferes in political issues, when it comes to such questions as the Liquor or White Slave Traffic, we certainly speak in no uncertain manner. Our Founder gave us a free platform, a chance to say the things that are right and just and when the day comes to register against the re-introduction of the liquor evil every Salvationist will be Salvationist is a crusader in the cause of Temperance.

"The Manitoba Temperance Act as it now stands may not be perfect in its prevention of the use of liquor, but it is a tremendous improvement on the open bar system. Sa'yatio Army Officers know how diffic is for the man who has a racing to for drink to resist temptation. If want to feel the fire of hell you with the state of the same of t lots of alcohol in you. If there is no other reason in the world why we should put the booze away, I feel we should do it to protect those who cannot help themselves. One thing very clear and certain to us to-night is that it is not those who believe in poat it is not those who believe in temperance who have advocated that there should be a change in the law at the present time. We admit that the law we now have is not as rigidly enforced as it might be. A change has been proposed by the Moderation League, and this change will bring about the re-opening of the flood gates for the incoming of liquor.

"The Salvation Army, let me repeat, has nothing to do with saying which way anyone shall vote in questions of politics, but it certainly has some-thing to say in directing the minds of its members in questions such as Temperance.
"We are in favor of leaving the Act as it now stands and look ward to its more exacting enforce-

Enthusiastically greeted

Dr. Leslie Pidgeon, a warm friend of the Salvation Army and a fearless exponent of Prohibition, was then presented to the audience by the Chief Secretary. That the Doctor is popular with Army people was evinced the enthusiastic and protracted ap-plause which greeted him as he rose to speak. Dr. Pidgeon focused the interested attention of the audience upon the chosen topic from his first utterance. He then proceeded to marshal an indomitable force of argumarsial an information force of argu-ment against the proposed Moderation League Bill. Dr. Pidgeon produced authoritative statistics which proved beyond question the betterment of social and moral conditions since the enactment of prohibition measures in both the United States and Canada. We should say that the sum totality of the evidence submitted constituted of the evidence submitted constituted an unanswerable challenge to the liquor forces. Tempered with a fine wit the Doctor's irrefutable logic came as a shattering blow to any spirit of compromise that might have lingered in some hearts regarding the motive of the "Moderationists."

Responsible for crime

"I have been a Prohibitionist all my life and I do not think the Liquor life and I do not think the Liquor Traffic has one redeening feature to its name or its history, as liquor is responsible for 90 per cent, of the world's crime, either directly or indirectly. In arguing with a Police Magistrate, I asked, 'Will you tell me as a man, how much of the crime that comes under your eye is due to liquor?' He suid. For my part, practically all the crime I deal with is due to liquor.' Therefore, to a thing that has no redeeming feature and has done naught but evil, I cannot, as a Christian citizen, be other than a sworn enemy."

sworn enemy."
Following Dr. Pidgeon's illuminating address, the diminutive form and peppery spirit of Staff-Captain Allen was much in evidence. The Staff-Captain is a periodical visitor to both the City and Provincial Jails, so was able to give first hand facts as to the dimnishing of the number of court con-victions because of drunkenness since the Manitoba Temperance Act has been in force.

Lieut,-Colonel Phillips brought the meeting to a fitting conclusion by chiling a ringing call to practical the by the Salvationists of Winter the eve of a great the eve of a great ut to do our part o win." he said. "I stand for the right position,"

COMING EVENTS

COMMISSIONER SOWTON

*Hamilton, Sun., Jupe 3 (Young People's Day).

*Toronto Temple, Tues., June 5, (Musical Festival). Picton, Thurs., Jun 7. Napance, Fri., June 8. Gananoque, Sat., June 9.
Brockville, Sun., June 10.
Sherbrooke, Thurs., June 14.
Quebec, Fri., June 15.
Montreal V., Sat., Jane 16.
Montreal IV., Sun., June 17, 11 a.m.

and 3 p.m.

Montreal II., Sun., June 17, 7 p.m. Collingwood, Sat.-Sun., June 23-24, Feversham, Mon., June 25. Windsor, Ont., Thurs., June 28. London, Friday, June 29. †Windsor, N.S., Sat.-Sun., July 7th

Lieut. Colonel Morehen accompan-

*Mrs. Sowton will accompany.
Lt.-Colonel Adby will accompany and interview Candidates at each

MRS. COMMISSIONER SOWTON Chester (Toronto), Wed., June 6.

p.m. (Home League Sale of Work) rigadier and Mrs. Walton—Mimico, Sun., June 10; Lisgar Street, Sun., June 17.

rigadier McAmmond-Cobalt, Sat. Sun., June 9-10; Timmins, Mon., June 11; Cochrane, Tues., June 12.
Major Byers-Mount Forest, Sat.-Sun.,
June 9-10; Owen Sound, Sat.-Sun.,

June 16-10; Owen Sound, Sat.-Sun, June 16-17; Wiarton, Mon., June 18. Staff-Captain Burton—Parrsboro, Sat.-Sun., June 9-19; Springhill, Mon., June 11; Truro, Tues., June 12; Pjctou, Sat., June 16; Westville, Sun.-Mon., June 17-18.

Staff-Captain and Mrs. Kendali-Wyonwood, Sat., June 2. to Sun., June 17.
Staff-Captain Richards — Yarmouth,
Sat.-Sun., June 9-10: Digby, Mon.,
June 11: Kentville, Sat.-Sun., June 16.17

Staff-Captain Knight — Brock Ave., Sun., June 10; Rowntree, Sun., June 17.

Staff-Captain MacDonald - Sydney, Sat.-Sun., June 9-10,

HOME LEAGUE APPOINTMENTS Mrs. Commissioner Sowton, Dover-ourt—Tuesday, June 5th, 2,30 p.m.

Mrs, Lieut-Colonel Adby, Earls: court-Wednesday, June 6th, 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Brigadler Jennings, North To ronto-Wednesday, June 6th, 2.45

Mrs. Staff-Captain McElhiney, Mount Dennis-Wednesday, June 6th, 2.30

Thursday June 7th, 2.30 p.m.

Mrs. Ensign Robertson, Parliament t.—Thursday, June 7th, 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Commandant Green, Fairbank

-Wednesday, June 13th, 2 p.m.
Adjutant Green, Toronto I.—Wednesday, June 13th, 2 p.m.
Mrs. Brigadier Moore and Mrs.

Staff-Captain Cameron, East Toronto

Thursday, June 14th, 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Lieut. Colonel Miller, Temple Tuesday, June 19th, 7.45 p.m.

ADDRESS, WANTED

Any particulars concernous at Brantford, Ont. 2 was located oil Vancouver B.C. received by Street, St. Caller Supple

SONGS OF SALVATION

HEAR ME

Tunes—"Jesus, lover of my soul," 84;
"Saviour, lead me." 86. BongBook, 170

Jesus, Lover of my soul, Let me to Thy bosom fly, While the nearer waters roll, While the tempest still is high,

Chorus

Hear me, hear me,
Saviour, hear me while I pray,
As before Thy Cross I kneel,
Saviour, hear me while I pray.

Hide me, O my Saviour hide, Till the storm of life be past; Safe into the haven guide. Oh, receive my soul at last!

Other refuge have I none. Hangs my helpless soul on Thee; Leave, ah, leave me not alone! Still support and comfort me.

All my trust on Thee is stayed, All my help from Thee I bring; Cover my defenseless head With the shadow of Thy wing.

HAPPY DAY

Tunes—"O happy day," 11; "Monmouth," 9. Song-Book, 316

Oh, happy day that fixed my choice On Thee, my Saviour and my God! Well may this glowing heart rejoice, And tell its raptures all abroad.

Chorus

Happy, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away! He taught me how to watch and pray, And live rejoicing every day, Happy day, happy day, etc.

Oh, happy bond that seals my vows, To Him that merits all my love! I.ct cheerful praises fill His house. While to His blessed throne I move.

PRECIOUS FOUNTAIN

Tune—"Nothing but the Blood of Jesus," B. J. 65. Song-Book, 176

What can wash away my sin? Nothing but the Blood of Jesus. What can keep me always clean? Nothing but the Blood of Jesus.

Chorus Oh precious is the flow, That washes white as snow; No other fount I know, Nothing but the Blood of Jesus!

What can sweep all doubts away? Help me live by faith each day?

What can make me brave and strong? Keep my conscience void of wrong?

What can put all earth's wrongs right?
Change sin's darkness into light?

JUST AS I AM

Tunes..."Take all my sins away," 135; "Just as I am," 134. Song-Book, 165

Just as I am—without one plea But that Thy Blood was shed for me, And that Thou bidst me come to Thee. O Lamb of God, I come!

Just as I am—and waiting not To rid my soul of one To rid my soul of one dark spot— To Thee whose Blood can cleanse each blot.

O Lamb of God, I come!

Just as I am-Thou wilt receive, Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve,

Because Thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

at as I am-Thy love I own Has broken every barrier down; v to be Thine, yet. Thine alone, O Lamb of God. I come!

EAST TORONTO Ensign Gage, Captain Bryant

We have experienced times real blessing in our Corps recently.
On Sunday, April 27th, Colonel and Mrs. Jacobs conducted the Self-Denial Altar service which was a real success. The Colonel's talks in the success. The Colone's tarks in the morning and evening were much enjoyed. We finished up at night with twelve at the cross.

On Sunday, May 13th we had a visit from Ensign and Mrs. Spooner. In the morning service we had with us the District Orange Lodge who had their Church parade to the Citadel. The Ensign's talk was listened to very attentively. This being Mother's Day attentively. attentively. This being Mother's Day the Ensign's talk at night was along the lines of Mother. A very impres-sive service was held. On May 20th, Staff-Captain Cameron paid us a visit. The morning service was somewhat poorly attended because of the down pour of rain but at night a good crowd gathered to listen to the Staff-Captain's message. One soul surrendered to God.

Sunday, May 27th was a day of much blessing when Ensign Sowton, Cadets Condie and Harply were with us. The Ensign's talk in the morning was very helpful. In the afternoon the Cadets gave a very interesting talk to the children on "Five Foxes which spoil the heart." The children certain-ly enjoyed it. The Ensign taught them a new chorits.

After a rousing open-air at night we tame into our inside meeting where a beautiful spirit prevailed and God's presence was felt. The Ensign's address brought conviction to many hearts and three backsliders returned during a well fought prayer meeting.

Space for Corps Announcements

MISSING

The Salvation Army with search to missing persons in any part of the pleas befriend and as far as possible as suit any one in difficulty. Address Colonel Orea, James and Albert Sts. Town militing "Enquiry" on the envelope. One dellar should, when possible, his sent with each enquiry, to help city expenses.

expenses.
Officers, Soldiers and friends are invited to assist in this matter by looking and notifying Colone Otway, if ally in giver any information.

LAVENDER, George, married, age 20 height 5 ft. 6 in., black hale, brown erg. bear in Estate Wobbed tinger right to the Mark the bronths. Last known to half the Wat Was a Salvationist. Information urganity needed.

months. Last known to be in the West. Was a Salvationist. Information urgin. Seveden; age 36. brown hair and gas seveden; age 36. brown hair and gas seveden; age 36. brown hair and gas seveden; age 36. Last known address Toronto; dieger. Brother in Sevenaria was a several was

WILLIAMS, Nows urgently ed of this party visited her I Bradford. Ont. April. 1921, at 1 time she reside Bond Street. To. Aged m eager to hear her. Any infection gratefully celved. See pho

When last wrote was the property of the him. Mother intensely anxious to be 1.00 him. O'BRIEN of SCHINEDER, George iteman; age 22, height 5 r. 4 m. fair bein over the second of the last of the second of the last last please communicate. Lists 1.00 please communicate the please commun

Feterboro, Anyone knowing wheresteets of this lad, please communicate. Life BOUCHER, Henry, age 40; higher than the second of the lad, please communicate Life Bourder of the lad of the la

The property of the property o

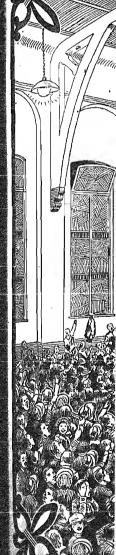

enquires,

HOME, William, height 5 ft. 8 in, rei hair, sandy complexion. Let his hear in Cantleton, Ontario, September, in intending to go to the Ottawa Fair, and has not been heard from since. And knowing of whereabouts please comments

mas nu been neard 1701 310.6 Audiente inoving of whereabouts pienes commended in the state of th

Official Gazeffe INTERNATIONAL HEADQU 101 QHEEN VICTORIA ST., LO

NO. 2018. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

A Section of the To the Territorial